Early Islam:

Early Islam William Montgomery Watt, 2019-08-08 This highly respected scholar brings together some of his finest work on early Islamic history from Mohammed and the Qur'an to early Islamic thought A History of Early Islam

Mazhar-ul-Haq, 1960 The Spiritual Background of Early Islam Meir Max Bravmann, 2009 In a series of essays devoted to key terms and ideas in Islam Bravmann argues on the basis of pre-Islamic and early Islamic texts for an Arabian background to the rise of the religion In pursuing a thorough philological examination of the evidence Bravmann finds core values and ideas of Islam deeply embedded in ancient Arab linguistic expression His work continues to provide a critical element in the debates about the emergence of Islam and cannot be ignored by anyone trying to assess the complex historiographical problems that surround the issue Ancient Civilizations of Islam - Muslim History for Kids - Early Dynasties | Ancient History for Kids | 6th Grade Social Studies

Baby Professor, 2018-05-15 Did you know that once upon a time Islam was a powerful religion that has spread to many countries Not only that it has also influenced civilizations cultures science and technology too This educational picture book will discuss the early dynasties in Muslim history Get your child exposed to diverse knowledge Secure a copy of this ancient history book today The Rebel and the Imam in Early Islam

Najam Haider, 2019-09-19 Drawing on case studies from Islamic history Haider challenges assumptions about the nature of the sources shaping understandings of the early Muslim world Early Islam

Guillaume Dye, 2023-03-20 In recent decades new paradigms have radically altered the historical understanding of the Qur'an and Early Islam causing much debate and controversy This volume gathers select proceedings from the first conference of the Early Islamic Studies Seminar These studies explore the history of the Qur'an and of formative Islam with the methodological tools set forth in Biblical New Testament and Apocryphal studies as well as the approaches used in the study of Second Temple Judaism Christian and Rabbinic origins It thereby contributes to the interdisciplinary study of formative Islam as part and parcel of the religious landscape of Late Antiquity Early Islam

Desmond Stewart, 1967 An account of the history people scientific and artistic achievements religion politics and culture of early Islam Routledge Handbook on Early Islam

Herbert Berg, 2017-08-10 The formative period of Islam remains highly contested From the beginning of modern scholarship on this formative period scholars have questioned traditional Muslim accounts on early Islam The scholarly fixation is mirrored by sectarian groups and movements within Islam most of which trace their origins to this period Moreover contemporary movements from Salafists to modernists continue to point to Islam's origins to justify their positions This Handbook provides a definitive overview of early Islam and how this period was understood and deployed by later Muslims It is split into four main parts the first of which explores the debates and positions on the critical texts and figures of early Islam The second part turns to the communities that identified their origins with the Qur'an and Muhammad In addition to the development of Muslim identities and politics of particular focus is the relationship with groups outside or movements inside of the umma the collective community of Muslims The third part looks beyond what happened from the 7th to the 9th centuries CE and explores what that period the events figures and texts have meant for Muslims in the past and what they mean for Muslims today Not all Muslims or scholars are willing to merely reinterpret early Islam and its sources though some are willing to jettison parts or even all of the edifice that has been constructed over almost a millennium and a half The Handbook therefore concludes with discussions of re imaginations and revisions of early Islam and its sources Almost every major debate in the study of Islam and among Muslims looks to the formative period of Islam The wide range of contributions from many of the leading academic experts on the subject therefore means that this book will be a valuable resource for all students and scholars of Islamic studies as well as for anyone with an interest in early Islam

A History of Islamic Societies Ira M.

Lapidus,2014-10-13 This new edition of one of the most widely used course books on Islamic civilizations around the world has been substantially revised to incorporate the new scholarship and insights of the last twenty five years Ira Lapidus history explores the beginnings and transformations of Islamic civilizations in the Middle East and details Islam s worldwide diffusion The history is divided into four parts Part I is a comprehensive account of pre Islamic late antiquity the beginnings of Islam the early Islamic empires and Islamic religious artistic legal and intellectual cultures Part II deals with the construction in the Middle East of Islamic religious communities and states to the fifteenth century Part III includes the history to the nineteenth century of Islamic North Africa and Spain the Ottoman Safavid and Mughal empires and other Islamic societies in Asia and Africa Part IV accounts for the impact of European commercial and imperial domination on Islamic societies and traces the development of the modern national state system and the simultaneous Islamic revival from the early nineteenth century to the present

The Crisis of Muslim History Mahmoud M. Ayoub,2014-10-01

This is a detailed yet accessible guide to the way in which religion and politics interacted during the earliest years of Islam It focuses on the period of the first four caliphs untangling the crisis of sucession and the subsequent schism between the Sunni and Shi i movements in Islam and drawing on a combination of primary documents and scholarship in the field It includes two appendices featuring original English translations of key source material

The Oxford History of Islam John L.

Esposito,2000-04-06 Lavishly illustrated with over 300 pictures including more than 200 in full color The Oxford History of Islam offers the most wide ranging and authoritative account available of the second largest and fastest growing religion in the world John L Esposito Editor in Chief of the four volume Oxford Encyclopedia of the Modern Islamic World has gathered together sixteen leading scholars both Muslim and non Muslim to examine the origins and historical development of Islam its faith community institutions sciences and arts Beginning in the pre Islamic Arab world the chapters range from the story of Muhammad and his Companions to the development of Islamic religion and culture and the empires that grew from it to the influence that Islam has on today s world The book covers a wide array of subjects casting light on topics such as the historical encounter of Islam and Christianity the role of Islam in the Mughal and Ottoman empires the growth of Islam in Southeast Asia China and Africa the political economic and religious challenges of European imperialism in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries and Islamic communities in the modern Western world In addition the book offers excellent articles on Islamic religion art and architecture and sciences as well as bibliographies Events in the contemporary world have led to an explosion of interest and scholarly work on Islam Written for the general reader but also appealing to specialists The Oxford History of Islam offers the best of that recent scholarship presented in a readable style and complemented by a rich variety of illustrations

Late Antiquity on the Eve of Islam Averil Cameron, 2017-05-15 This volume reflects the huge upsurge of interest in the Near East and early Islam currently taking place among historians of late antiquity At the same time Islamicists and Qur'anic scholars are also increasingly seeking to place the life of Muhammad and the Qur'an in a late antique background Averil Cameron herself one of the leading scholars of late antiquity and Byzantium has chosen eleven key articles that together give a rounded picture of the most important trends in late antique scholarship over the last decades and provide a coherent context for the emergence of the new religion A substantial introduction with a detailed bibliography surveys the present state of the field as well as discussing some recent themes in Qur'anic and early Islamic scholarship from the point of view of a late antique historian The volume also provides an invaluable introduction to recent scholarship making clear the ferment of religious change that was taking place across the Near East before during and after the lifetime of Muhammad It will be essential reading for Islamicists and late antique students and scholars alike

The Formation of Islamic Law Wael B. Hallaq, 2016-12-05 The fourteen studies included in this volume have been chosen to serve several purposes simultaneously At a basic level they aim to provide a general if not wholly systematic coverage of the emergence and evolution of law during the first three and a half centuries of Islam On another level they reflect the different and at times widely divergent scholarly approaches to this subject matter These two levels combined will offer a useful account of the rise of Islamic law not only for students in this field but also for Islamicists who are not specialists in matters of law comparative legal historians and others At the same time however and as the Introduction to the work argues this collection of distinguished contributions illustrates both the achievements and the shortcomings of paradigmatic scholarship on the formative period of Islamic law

Early Islam Karl-Heinz Ohlig, 2013 This successor volume to The Hidden Origins of Islam edited by Karl Heinz Ohlig and Gerd R Puin continues the pioneering research begun in the first volume into the earliest development of Islam Using coins commemorative building inscriptions and a rigorous linguistic analysis of the Koran along with Persian and Christian literature from the seventh and eighth centuries when Islam was in its formative stages five expert contributors attempt a reconstruction of this critical time period Despite the scholarly nature of their work the implications of their discoveries are startling Islam originally emerged as a sect of Christianity Its central theological tenets were influenced by a pre-Nicean Syrian Christianity Aramaic the common language throughout the Near East for many centuries and the language of Syrian Christianity significantly influenced the Arabic script and vocabulary used in the

Koran Finally it was not until the end of the eighth and ninth centuries that Islam formed as a separate religion and the Koran underwent a period of historical development of at least 200 years Controversial and highly intriguing this critical historical analysis reveals the beginning of Islam in a completely new light Islam Roberto Tottoli,2020-10-27 Exploring complex relations between Muslim visions and critical stances this textbook is a compact introduction to Islam dealing with the origins of its forms from early developments to contemporary issues including religious principles beliefs and practices The author s innovative method considers the various opposing theories and approaches between the Islamic tradition and scholars of Islam Each topic is accompanied by up to date bibliographical references and a list of titles for further study while an exhaustive glossary includes the elementary notions to allow in depth study Part I outlines the two founding aspects the Qur an and Prophet Muhammad highlighting essential concepts according to Islamic religious discourse and related critical issues In Part II the emergence of the religious themes that have characterised the formation of Islam are explored in terms of historical developments Part III on contemporary Islam examines the growth of Islam between the end of the Middle Ages and the beginning of the modern age Advanced readers already familiar with the elementary notions of Islam and religious studies will benefit from Islam that explores the development of religious discourse in a historical perspective This unique textbook is a key resource for post graduate researchers and academics interested in Islam religion and the Middle East

Production and the Exploitation of Resources Michael G. Morony,2022-04-19 This volume together with its companion Manufacturing and Labour examines the economic basis of the early Islamic world looking at the organization of extractive and agricultural operations manufacturing processes and labour relations Mining stock raising agriculture and irrigation are the themes of this volume The work is based on both literary sources and archaeology and is concerned with the extraction of raw materials and production based on natural resources and domesticated animals Some classic articles are included because they defined the issues and deserve to be available due to their continuing significance These are balanced by state of the art studies and by others translating and commenting on important texts in areas where analytic studies have yet to be carried out This body of work provides a sense of the intensity of exploitation of natural resources in early Islamic times of how labour and energy intensive mining agriculture and irrigation were and of the interrelationship of different sectors of the economy

Early Islam and the Birth of Capitalism Benedikt Koehler,2014-06-17 Early Islam and the Birth of Capitalism proposes a strikingly original thesis that capitalism first emerged in Arabia not in late medieval Italian city states as is commonly assumed Early Islam made a seminal but largely unrecognized contribution to the history of economic thought it is the only religion founded by an entrepreneur Descending from an elite dynasty of religious civil and commercial leaders Muhammad was a successful businessman before founding Islam As such the new religion had much to say on trade consumer protection business ethics and property As Islam rapidly spread across the region so did the economic teachings of early Islam which eventually made their way to Europe Early Islam and the Birth of Capitalism demonstrates how Islamic institutions and business practices were adopted and adapted in Venice and Genoa These financial innovations include the invention of the corporation business management techniques commercial arithmetic and monetary reform There were other Islamic institutions assimilated in Europe charities the waqf inspired trusts and institutions of higher learning the madrasas were models for the oldest colleges of Oxford and Cambridge As such it can be rightfully said that these essential aspects of capitalist thought all have Islamic roots Contributions to the History of Islamic Civilization Salahuddin Khuda Bukhsh,1929 Frontiers of Islamic Art and Architecture Gülru Necipoğlu,Julia Bailey,2008 Muqarnas is sponsored by The Aga Khan Program for Islamic Architecture at Harvard University and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology Cambridge Massachusetts In Muqarnas articles are being published on all aspects of Islamic visual culture historical and contemporary as well as articles dealing with unpublished textual primary sources Studies in Early Islamic History Martin Hinds,1996 Reprints all nine published articles by British Egyptologist and linguist Hinds 1941 88 except his encyclopedia articles They deal with several important themes including the first Civil War and the social and political tensions underlying it early Islamic historiography conquests relations between Muslims and others and the inquisition during the early Abbasid times Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR
