Arranged alphabetically, the entries contain brief biographies of the people who have made Mexican American history while playing important roles in American society; the focus is primarily on public and professional life, with the most important figures receiving greater attention and more detailed histories. Most of the entries are followed by one or more bibliographic references; there are indexes of the biographees by state and by fields of activity. An outstanding feature of this sourcebook is the inclusion of a broader scope of information about each of the figures, such as their social and intellectual background, academic training, their development in their chosen fields, and signal achievements as shown by appointments, awards, and prizes.

Notable Twentieth-century Latin American Women Cynthia Tompkins, David William Foster, 2001

Artists from Latin American Cultures Kristin G. Congdon, Kara Kelley Hallmark, 2002-10-30

Latin Americans have long been relegated to the cultural background, obscured by the dominant European culture. This biographical dictionary profiles 75 artists from the United States and 13 nations of Central and South America and the Caribbean, including painters, sculptors, photographers, muralists, printmakers, installation artists, and performance artists. Some of their works recall pre-Columbian times; others confront the cultural imperialism of the U.S. over Latin America, and many explore how the dominant elements of culture can affect identities of class, gender, and sexuality. Profiled artists range from the renowned to the little-known: Frida Kahlo, Tina Modotti, Diego Rivera, Myrna Baez, Raquel Forner, Patrocino Barela, and many more. Color photographs are provided for many of the works. Each entry includes information about the artist's childhood, schooling, creative growth, and artistic styles and themes. Exemplary artworks and influences are described, along with a look at popular and critical responses. Supplemental features include artist cross-references, a glossary of essential terms from the art world, and a number of vivid photos portraying the artists in their creative environments.
