Biological Metaphor and Cladistic Classification Henry M. Hoenigswald, Linda F. Wiener, 1984 Ancestors and Relatives Eviatar Zerubavel, 2012-01-26 Noted social scientist Eviatar Zerubavel casts a critical eye on how we trace our past individually and collectively arguing that rather than simply find out who our ancestors are from genetics or history we actually create the stories that make them our ancestors Metaphor II Jean-Pierre Noppen, Edith Hols, 1990-01-01 Metaphor though not now the scholarly mania it once was remains a topic of great interest in many disciplines albeit with interesting shifts in emphasis Warren Shibles Metaphor An Annotated Bibliography and History Bloomington Ind 1971 recorded the initial interest Then Metaphor A Bibliography of Post 1970 Publications published by John Benjamins continued the record through the mania years up to 1985 when writings proliferated as metaphor was seen to be a fundamental category in human thought and language Five years later there is a need for a report on the newest thinking and tendencies in the field This need is fulfilled by Metaphor II which offers a comprehensive view of information which would otherwise remain scattered throughout a numbing plethora of resources including many sometimes hard to find publications from Eastern Europe Metaphor II systematically collects references of books articles and papers published between 1985 and May 1990 and includes for completeness corrections and additions to the earlier bibliographies Abstracts are given for many of the titles while four indices disciplines semantic fields metaphor theory and names multiply the number of access points to the information Metaphor, Nation and Discourse Ljiljana Šarić, Mateusz-Milan Stanojević, 2019-05-20 This edited volume examines how metaphors and related phenomena metonymies symbols cultural models stereotypes lead to the discursive construal of a common element that brings the nation together The central idea is that metaphor use must be questioned to lay bare the processes and the discursive power behind them The chapters examine a range of contemporary and historical monomodal and multimodal discourses including politicians discourse presidential speeches newspapers TV series Catholic homilies colonialist discourse and various online sources The approaches taken include political science international relations cultural studies and linguistics All contributions feature discursive constructivist views of metaphor with clear sociocultural grounding and the notion of metaphor as a framing device in constructing various aspects of nations and national identity The volume will appeal to scholars in discourse analysis metaphor studies media studies nationalism studies and political science The Making of the Humanities Rens Bod, Jaap Maat, Thijs Weststeijn, 2025-10-01 This much awaited second volume investigates the changes in subject method and institutional context of the humanistic disciplines around 1800 offering a wealth of insights for specialists and students alike Point of departure is the pivotal question whether there was a paradigm shift in the humanities around 1800 or whether these changes were part of a much longer process The authors provide an overarching perspective including philology musicology art history linguistics historiography philosophy and literary theory They also make clear that the influence from the East from the Ottoman Empire to China was crucial for
