Abstract Expressionism A Critical Record:

Abstract Expressionism David Shapiro, Cecile Shapiro, 1990-03-30 Abstract Expressionism was the dominant movement in experimental American painting from the 1940s through the early 1960s This book is a collection of articles reviews and essays that chronicle the critical history of the movement from its inception to the present Drawing on a range of sources including newspapers magazines and exhibition catalogues the original debates about the validity of action painting are dramatically illustrated The articles selected for the volume include classic statements from the most influential and prolific critics including Clement Greenberg Harold Rosenberg and Hilton Kramer The editors have also included contributions of iconoclasts from the 1950s and 1960s such as Leon Golub and John Canaday to suggest the full range of critical discussion Six representative artists are the subject of extended sections that include biographical chronologies reviews and the artists own comments Willem de Kooning Adolph Gottlieb Franz Kline Barnett Newman Jackson Pollock and Mark Rothko Men Only. Abstract Expressionism with regard to issues of race and gender Sandra Kuberski, 2014-12-15 Essay from the year 2012 in the subject Art History of Art grade 1 3 University of Essex Art History course Art in the USA language English abstract Abstract Expressionism is often referred to as the most powerful original movement in the history of American art which dominated American painting from the end of World War II In examining its styles and themes this essay is going to illustrate why the movement is deemed a modern and American art practice Considering paintings of Jackson Pollock 1912 1956 Willem de Kooning 1904 1997 Mark Rothko 1903 1970 and Barnett Newman 1905 1970 specific attention will be drawn to issues of race and gender The Grove Encyclopedia of American Art Joan M. Marter, 2011 Arranged in alphabetical order these 5 volumes encompass the history of the cultural development of America with over 2300 entries Film Noir Reader 2 Alain Silver, James Ursini, 1999 In the wake of the remarkable success of Film Noir Reader this new collection further explores a genre of limitless fascination and one that continues to inspire and galvanise the latest generation of film makers Again heavily illustrated with close to 150 stills Film Noir Reader 2 is organised much like the earlier volume The Performance of Trauma in Moving Image Art Dirk Cornelis de Bruyn, 2014-10-02 With reference to recent neurological research into Post Traumatic Stress Disorder PTSD using new imaging technologies and models of implicit and explicit memory systems developed from this research The Performance of Trauma in Moving Image Art examines the capacity of an artist s cinema of experimental and avant garde film to perform and communicate traumatic experience De Bruyn analyses key films from the 1940s to the present that perform aspects of overwhelming experience through their approach structure content and perceptual impact mapping a trajectory from analogue to contemporary digital moving image practice He argues for the inclusion of Peter Gidal s 1970s conception of materialist film into the genre of trauma cinema through its capacity to articulate un locatability and perceptually perform dis orientation and a flashback effect all further identified here as key characteristics of digital moving image practice The discussion explores the following questions Can materialist film model traumatic memory and perform the traumatic flashback Does the capacity to articulate trauma s un speakability and invisibility give this practice a renewed relevance in digital media s preoccupation with surface and the impact of information overload De Bruyn s phenomenological traumatic reading of materialist film steps beyond Gidal s original anti illusionist rationale to incorporate critiques effectively mounted against it by the founders of a 70s feminist psychoanalytic counter cinema This contemporary re reading further re evaluates the Minimalist turn in painting and sculpture after the Second World War arguing that this development is not essentialist or visionary but makes visible the implicit mechanisms of denial and erasure at the core of traumatic remembering For de Bruyn the initial traumatic impact of industrialization on the body s perceptual apparatus traceable through the advent of cinema and train travel is communicated by such moving image art The development of digital technology marks a new cycle of such perceptual re balancing for which materialist film is uniquely positioned and which it critically addresses

The Invention of Painting in America David Rosand,2004 David Rosand recounts the transformation of early American painters from provincial followers of the established traditions of Europe into some of the most innovative and influential artists in the world Moving beyond simple descriptions of what distinguishes American art from other movements and forms Rosand explores not only the status of artists and their relationship to their work but also the larger dialogue between the artist and society He looks to the intensely studied portraits of America s early painters especially Copley and Eakins and the landscapes of Homer and Inness among others Each of these artists grappled with conflicting cultural attitudes and different expressive styles He discusses the work of Davis Gorky de Kooning Pollock Rothko and Motherwell and the subjects and themes that engaged them Despite the indifference with which it was first met American art flourished against the odds and founded the aesthetic consciousness that we equate with American art today In this exhilarating study Rosand unearths the historical and artistic conditions that gave rise to the phenomenon of Abstract Expressionism

Ideology and Rhetoric Bożenna Chylińska,2009-01-14 The discovery of America and its further development into a modern state and a nation are the clear instance of how ideology and rhetoric are entwined and how they can encompass widely disparate viewpoints The essays collected in this book address the topical issues of modern American Studies cultural difference and otherness gender race and ethnicity class and power They represent new texts and contexts approached through the revision reevaluation and reconfiguration of canons thus accommodating the expectations of the heterodox audience Femininity reconsidered an ideology of passing away in contemporary world of technical development race captured within the framework of identity and gender the rhetoric of blackness approached through racial exploitation American conquest ideology revealed in a mission of Manifest Destiny the 20th century assimilation rhetoric in the relations between Native Americans and the US federal government the conservative ideology and apologetic rhetoric of the Antebellum South the critique of the 21st century American legal system the evolution of the presidential rhetoric which today addresses a large heterogeneous audience all these topics impose a transnational interpretation of American culture which developed as a result of the cross cultural transformation of European culture cultures moulded on American soil to finally become a unique reformulation of the very idea of America itself The Power of Art Caroline Campbell,2023-10-12

To read most histories of art you might be forgiven for supposing that great artists are superhuman and the knowledge of different movements periods and styles is essential to truly appreciate art It s time to look at art in a new way THE POWER OF ART delves into the stories behind remarkable acts of creation in fifteen global cities at pivotal moments of artistic brilliance It shows how art is an integral part of our daily lives embedded in the very fabric of our existence From the enduring wonders of ancient Babylon to the menacing pastel architecture of contemporary Pyongyang eminent curator Caroline Campbell intertwines the stories of artists with the broader social cultural and political landscapes of their time In each vivid episode Campbell reveals how art in all its forms is a testament to humanity s inventiveness and ingenuity it has served our fundamental needs for shelter sustenance spirituality pleasure order and community But it can also evoke envy anger greed and even be used as a means of social control Spanning thousands of years of creativity THE POWER OF ART will ignite your imagination and open your eyes to the art that surrounds us whether it be a painting in a gallery a public sculpture or an everyday object with hidden beauty Under the Hammer James Simpson,2010-11-30 Iconoclasm is not a barbaric act which takes place somewhere else but is instead a central strand of Anglo American modernity Our horror at the destruction of art derives in part from the fact that we did and still do that This is most obviously true of England s iconoclastic century between 1538 and 1643 which stands at the core of this book Abstract Expressionism David Shapiro,1990 The Americanist ,2006 Conformity and Resistance in America Jacek Gutorow,Tomasz Lebiecki,2007

Conformity and Resistance in America a collection of thirty six essays from various fields of the U S studies addresses the American culture as a space of fruitful tensions between the generally acknowledged canons and the projects that have questioned and subverted its very foundations and archives The book seeks to give justice to those areas of American culture that traditionally used to be treated as marginal and negligible but which in fact have added up to its uniqueness This includes various areas of American cultural and literary studies gender and minority studies themes of diasporic communities multi ethnic and multicultural society problems of global economy and of competing worldwide ideologies The papers included in this book try to answer pressing questions of the American identity in the post 9 11 world and do so by pointing to the recent oehumanities crisis as well as revealing moments of heterogeneity and discontinuity in the making of any culture Contrary to Samuel Huntington TM s dictum telling us of the inevitable oeclash of civilizations the following essays concentrate on what Edward W Said called oehumanism TM s sphere the sphere of antagonizing discourses and narratives which challenge rather than confirm the bases of their legitimacy Wavering between conformity and resistance the essays propose possible formulas for the new American identity as it strives to define and project itself into the new century
