Studies in the History of Ideas: Appearance and reality in Greek philosophy Columbia University. Department of Philosophy,1918 Image and Reality in Plato's Metaphysics Richard Patterson,1985 Class Arthur Marwick,1981

Building Blocs Cedric de Leon,Manali Desai,Cihan Tuğal,2015-05-27 Do political parties merely represent divisions in society Until now scholars and other observers have generally agreed that they do But Building Blocs argues the reverse that some political parties in fact shape divisions as they struggle to remake the social order Drawing on the contributors expertise in Indonesia India the United States Canada Egypt and Turkey this volume demonstrates further that the success and failure of parties to politicize social differences has dramatic consequences for democratic change economic development and other large scale transformations This politicization of divisions or political articulation is neither the product of a single charismatic leader nor the machinations of state power but is instead a constant call and response between parties and would be constituents When articulation becomes inconsistent as it has in Indonesia partisan calls grow faint and the resulting vacuum creates the possibility for other forms of political expression However when political parties exercise their power of interpellation efficiently they are able to silence certain interests such as those of secular constituents in Turkey Building Blocs exposes political parties as the most influential agencies that structure social cleavages and invites further critical investigation of the related consequences Class Arthur Marwick,1980 A provocative and wide ranging historical overview of this vital social subject of class distinctions The author compares American French and British society since the Depression and concludes that in all three class is still an important factor Images, Reality, and Digital Culture Krešimir Purgar,2025-09-30 Focusing on the moment of transition from the pictorial to the post pictorial condition this book advocates the opinion that what fundamentally distinguishes pictorial representation in Western civilization is one s ability to distinguish what the picture shows from what the picture refers to and to that extent the reality inside the picture cannot be confused with what is outside it The contributions in this book serve as kind of a missing link connecting the genealogy of traditional images with contemporary environmental visualizations in the world that in this very moment undergoes a transition into a new exciting age in which many old knowledges are rapidly becoming obsolete and new ones are seeking their legitimacy Instead of leading the reader to reconciliation with the fatal diagnosis of the world under the rule of technological determinism this book indicates the key points of transition between the pictorial representation that traditionally belonged to the history of art and the virtual presence that is approached in quite different ways today This book will be of interest to scholars working in art history image philosophy image studies and digital studies The Monist Paul Carus,1892 Vols 2 and 5 include appendices Reality ,1928 A Companion to Reality Television Laurie Ouellette,2014-01-28 International in scope and more comprehensive than existing collections A Companion to Reality Television presents a complete guide to the study of reality factual and nonfiction television entertainment encompassing a wide range of formats and incorporating cutting edge work in critical social and political theory Original in bringing cutting edge work in critical social and political theory into the conversation about reality TV Consolidates the latest broadest range of scholarship on the politics of reality television and its vexed relationship to culture society identity democracy and ordinary people in the media Includes primetime reality entertainment as well as precursors such as daytime talk shows in the scope of discussion Contributions from a list of international leading scholars in this field "The" Monist ,1892

Public Documents ,1903 Redefining Monuments Daniel Palacios González, José María Durán Medraño, 2026-01-01 This book undertakes a critical examination of monuments heritage and memory analysing their intersections with colonial histories gender dynamics and class structures By challenging conventional conceptions of monuments memory and heritage this work advocates for a materialist approach that rigorously critiques hegemonic and authorised discourses It seeks to reconceptualise these phenomena by proposing alternative paradigms and radical practices that offer new perspectives on their construction preservation and interpretation The volume is structured into two primary sections a theoretical component that develops a materialist critique of the subject alongside innovative frameworks for its reinterpretation and an empirical component grounded in concrete experiences derived from radical practices involving the construction preservation and demolition of monuments Situated within contemporary debates surrounding the future of monuments and the ongoing culture wars Redefining Monuments provides an indispensable resource for scholars and readers invested in counter hegemonic interpretations of monuments The work aims to advance the development of a materialist theory and methodology for understanding memory and heritage offering a critical contribution to these fields Advertising the American Dream Roland Marchand, 1985-09-16 A convincing and perceptive analysis that provides a careful sociological portrait of advertising agency people in the 1920s and 1930s Marchand has rare talent for bringing out things in the ads that the reader would not have seen alone Michael Schudson University of California San Diego This work illuminates some of the most important developments in twentieth century America T J Jackson Lears Rutgers University The Journal of Neurology and Psychopathology ,1927 Report Utah.
