

A photograph of a long, narrow wooden walkway between rows of grey metal storage units. The walkway is made of dark wooden planks and is scattered with fallen autumn leaves. In the background, trees with vibrant yellow and orange foliage are visible under a blue sky with scattered white clouds. The overall scene is bright and inviting.

Come Walk with Me Beatrice Mosionier, 2018-09-20 In 1983 the book In Search of April Raintree was published to great acclaim heralding the voice of an important new writer Beatrice Mosionier then Culleton With honesty and clarity Mosionier explored the story of two M tis sisters as they struggle with loss identity and racism Yet readers have long asked how much of April s story comes from the author s own life Come Walk With Me Beatrice s answer to that question is a moving memoir that follows a bewildered three year old through a dramatic journey to adulthood Recounting a life that at times parallels that of her most memorable fictional character and at others diverges from it Mosionier searches to make sense of her losses her sundered family her innocence and her dignity only to triumph as a woman and writer fulfilled artistically politically and personally

Come Walk With Me Sara Clark, Come, Walk With Me Edith Adrian Matthies, 2018-01-04 This writing began as a light retrospective narration walking through remembrances common to many who grew up in prairie farming communities in the last seventy years The walk continued through life s experiences which were in turn challenging or hilarious poignant or bitter and probably not highly unusual It became apparent to the writer that a benevolent Presence had been the constant companion in the journey In order to overcome inherent obstinacy the Spirit of God nudged pulled coaxed and even pushed as was needed The writer was able to invariably choose joy in the culmination of her life s experiences because of the deep love she experienced from her Heavenly Father As a result this writing evolved from a collection of vignettes into a spiritual biography written with introspective vulnerability for the enjoyment and contemplation of her children her grandchildren and all those who were part of her journey Good Will Record ,1930 Golden Hours ,1873
