Comedias I:

An Annotated Critical Edition of Juan Isidro Fajardo's Índice de todas las comedias impresas hasta el año de 1716 Don W. Cruickshank, Ann L Mackenzie, 2025-12-15 This book offers readers worldwide the first edition of Juan Isidro Fajardo's índice de todas las comedias impresas hasta el año de 1716 preserved in a single surviving manuscript in Spain's National Library. Indispensable to scholars, this meticulously annotated critical edition of an early 18th-century catalogue documents some 2,200 plays written during Spain's Golden Age by such world-class playwrights as Calderón, Lope de Vega, Tirso Moreto, Rojas Zorrilla, and many others. In this landmark edition, Fajardo's manuscript reference work is transformed into an accessible and enduring scholarly resource. The editors' research has supplied 1,651 annotations to the play titles listed, many of which contain fresh insights into the theatre and culture of seventeenth-century Spain. Descriptions are given of early printed plays and of important manuscripts. Textual differences are discussed, as are the sources from which dramas are derived. Many of the play entries address questions of authorship and dates of composition, while recording too early performances, the venues, and the theatre companies involved. The notes usually conclude by commenting on studies, editions, and translations relevant to the dramas concerned. With its introduction, bibliographies, and documentation, this critical edition is an invaluable medium through which to deepen understanding of the theatre, literature, and society of Early Modern Spain. Dedicated to Don W. Cruickshank, whose death occurred before the project's completion, this volume also contains articles which assess his influential career and publications, both focussed on the Golden Age of Spanish drama. The chapters in this book, including the first edition of Fajardo's catalogue of Spanish 17th-century printed plays, were originally published as a Special Issue of the Bulletin of Spanish Studies.

The Golden Age Comedia Charles Ganelin, Howard Mancing, 1994 Drawing on the groundbreaking Spanish scholarship and editions of earlier generations, and relying on research conducted in Spanish archives, this pioneering group of English-speaking scholars offers a new treatment of familiar material. The editors yoke together widely varying critical practices, including incisive New Critical readings and far-reaching explorations that draw on the most current European critical thought. In addition to these, more strictly literary studies, there are interdisciplinary essays focusing on seventeenth and twentieth-century reception and the social makeup of the comedia audience. The whole thus presents a balanced picture of the many ways in which the comedia can be viewed, and the contributors complement each other's work in often surprising ways, illuminating the same corpus from a number of perspectives.

The Positive Image of the Jew in the 'comedia' Andrew Herskovits, 2005 Argues contrary to most scholarly opinion that while on the explicit level they are anti-Jewish in a covert manner, the dramatic works of the Spanish Golden Age present a positive image of the Jews. Works by Rojas, Cervantes, and especially Lope de Vega are shown to have used coded writing and techniques of dissimulation to subvert the dominant anti-Jewish ideology of the day, embodied in the actions of the Inquisition and in the limpieza de sangre statutes. A reason for the indirect approach was that the writers, who were influenced by Christian

Humanism rather than by any putative Converso origin themselves sought to escape interrogation by the Inquisition One technique used was to replace the Converso by the figure of a persecuted woman or by a biblical legendary or foreign Jew Defending the Jews was an aspect of espousal of justice for all
