
COMMERCIAL LAW AND PRACTICE

Unit 1

Guide

Introduction to Commercial Law

Core Terms: Price, Payment and Delivery

Context

This Unit requires you to conduct research into one of the key players in the industry sector in which a client operates and to analyse a client's instructions to identify that client's legal, commercial and practical objectives, bearing in mind the underlying issues raised by your research. It also introduces you to the tactical considerations that you should think about when a dispute arises.

Analysing the commercial context in which a transaction takes place is important to enable you to tailor the advice that you are giving to the client. Not only does it ensure that you give accurate legal advice, but it also ensures that you have in mind relevant factors, including risk factors, that may influence the client's commercial objectives and tactical decisions, should a dispute arise.

Outcomes

On completion of this Unit you should be able to:

1. Research a company operating in a particular market sector and review an annual report to evaluate the performance of that company.
2. Identify the objectives and concerns of a commercial client, both in the short and the long term.
3. Explain and apply simple terms in a sale of goods contract on price, payment and delivery, in order to advise on how to resolve a contractual dispute.

Unit Workshop Tasks

In this Unit Workshop you will:

1. Prepare a report on a company operating within the oil industry.
2. Analyse your client's instructions following an interview with the client to establish its objectives and concerns.
3. Complete a task on breach of payment and delivery obligations.
