James Shearer holds a D. M. A. in performance and literature with an emphasis in music history from the Eastman School of Music in Rochester, NY. He teaches tuba, euphonium, music history, and music appreciation to graduate, undergraduate, and honors students at New Mexico State University in Las Cruces. In addition, he presents concerts, master classes, and lectures as a Yamaha Performing Artist. An active soloist, Dr. Shearer has appeared throughout the United States in solo recitals and as a guest artist with various wind ensembles and orchestras. Shearer is equally at home in a jazz setting, and his jazz tuba playing has been featured in several live performances for National Public Radio. In addition to performing, Dr. Shearer serves on the Executive Committee of the International Tuba-Euphonium Association as its Publications Coordinator. Classical Basics is his second textbook for Kendall/Hunt Publishing Company. His first book, Jazz Basics, is already in use at several colleges and universities around the United States.
