of the 1992 Glossaire de l'économie anglais-français contains some 30 000 terms and expressions covering a wide range of subject areas: general economics, statistics, finance and banking, trade, management, accounting, insurance, manpower and employment, development and tax. The glossary also explores new fields such as money laundering and financial engineering. It gives brief descriptions of four specialist areas: financial analysis, money laundering, credit derivatives and transfer prices, and the English equivalents of the basic concepts. It will provide a valuable service for anyone required to read and draft in English or French: economists, journalists, translators, interpreters, teachers and students. Building the Information Society, 1996. This action plan aims at providing Canadians with a national framework for building an Information Highway that meets Canadians' needs: a framework that will facilitate Canada's transition toward an information society and knowledge economy. The action plan is made up of four strategic thrusts: building Canada's information highway, growing Canadian content, realizing the economic and social benefits for all Canadians, and getting government right.
