On the Apparel of Women Tertullian, 2004-06-01 You must know that in the eye of perfect that is Christian modesty carnal desire of one's self on the part of others is not only not to be desired but even execrated by you first because the study of making personal grace which we know to be naturally the inviter of lust a mean of pleasing does not spring from a sound conscience why therefore excite toward yourself that evil passion why invite that to which you profess yourself a stranger secondly because we ought not to open a way to temptations which by their instancy sometimes achieve a wickedness

Tertullian - on the Apparel of Women Quintus Tertullianus, 2016-01-13 Female habit carries with it a twofold idea dress and ornament By dress we mean what they call womanly gracing by ornament what it is suitable should be called womanly disgracing The former is accounted to consist in gold and silver and gems and garments the latter in care of the hair and of the skin and of those parts of the body which attract the eye Against the one we lay the charge of ambition against the other of prostitution so that even from this early stage of our discussion you may look forward and see what out of all these is suitable handmaid of God to your discipline inasmuch as you are assessed on different principles from other women those namely of humility and chastity

The Dress of Women: a Critical Introduction to the Symbolism and Sociology of Clothing Charlotte Gilman, 2020-01-17 Tertullian Tertullian, Daniel J. Clausen, 2012-12-09 The following work is the second book of a larger whole by Tertullian which deals with the subject of modesty in female dress The idea presented is one that is indisputably Christian in nature but the application of that idea in the mind of the earliest believers in Christ may seem very foreign to the modern reader However one must consider the nearness of the apostolic teaching to those presented here and wonder did this teaching migrate more in the first 150 years or the next nearly 2000 years Upon reading the comments of others about it in the present day some have found Tertullian's explanation hard to understand others have called it ascetic or outright legalism I for one profoundly disagree with these assessments When the apostle Paul says women should adorn themselves in respectable apparel with modesty and self control not with braided hair and gold or pearls or costly attire but with what is proper for women who profess godliness with good works 1 Tim 2 9 10 what else is meant except that it is right for a woman to do exactly as stated Are we living now in a day when obeying a commandment is considered legalism Yet the logic of Tertullian is sharp and astute simply providing the explanation of the doctrine and its reasoning behind it Rather than a case for legalism Tertullian uses the issue as an apt means to show the motives and conditions of the heart A tree is known by its fruit Matt 12 33 said the Master Should not a modest woman dress modestly Should a woman who is not vain not revel in vanity And yet in many churches the women of God dress no differently with no less vanity or frivolity than those that do not know God Some may want to show how blessed they are with their finery still others want to show excellence in all they do so they come in their Sunday Best Though I understand such logic it still defies the repeated Scriptural command as well as the unified view of the early church the former of which ought to be our uncompromising guide in all manners of life While simply dressing with conscience is no means of salvation on its own it ought to adorn those whose hearts have been made tender through the conviction and sanctifying power of the Holy Spirit What is being presented is not a work but the fruit of a changed life This topic probably considered minor by many is unique in its ability to expose the tension between faith and works that so many seem to struggle with However the Bible is clear works on their own or as a means to impress God or earn His love are entirely without value However works are the natural and inevitable product of a living and vibrant faith The one produces the other Likewise dressing modestly gains nothing for one who is already separated from God it does not bring them one inch closer but for one who has been bought with a price it ought to be their natural desire to be pleasing to their Master not begrudgingly but as an act of love and thankfulness Walking with Christ is not a fake it until you make it endeavor One does not want to be as the pharisees who outwardly were as whited sepulchres but inside full of dead men s bones Matt 23 27 Looking the part outwardly is just another deception if it is not first found inwardly In the same manner though let what is found inside be manifest on the outside May the Lord use this work of gravity and pointed insight in a day where its message is much needed

Club Women of New York ,1920 The Dress of Women Charlotte Perkins Gilman,2001-10-30 Originally serialized in 1915 in The Forerunner and never before published in book form The Dress of Women presents Gilman s feminist sociological analysis of clothing in modern society Gilman explores the social and functional basis for clothing excavates the symbolic role of women s clothing in patriarchal societies and among other things explicates the aesthetic and economic principles of socially responsible clothing design The introduction by Hill and Deegan situates The Dress of Women within Gilman s intellectual work as a sociologist and relates her sociological ideas to the themes she developed in some of her other works Although written in 1915 Gilman s treatment of clothing and dress remains relevant This pioneering effort adds substantially to Gilman s reputation as a sociological theorist and feminist In addition it represents one of the earliest full length specifically sociological analyses of clothing and the fashion industry Ultimately the author concludes that harmful and degrading aspects of women s dress are amenable to reform if men and women will work together rationally to change the controlling institutional patterns of the society in which they live This groundbreaking work will appeal to those interested in Gilman feminist theory sociological theory social psychology women s literature and women s studies
