Black Islanders:

Black Islanders Jim Hornby, University of Prince Edward Island. Institute of Island Studies, 1991     Odysseys Home George Elliott Clarke, 2002-12-15 Odysseys Home Mapping African Canadian Literature is a pioneering study of African Canadian literary creativity laying the groundwork for future scholarly work in the field Based on extensive excavations of archives and texts this challenging passage through twelve essays presents a history of the literature and examines its debt to and synthesis with oral cultures George Elliott Clarke identifies African Canadian literature's distinguishing characteristics argues for its relevance to both African Diasporic Black and Canadian Studies and critiques several of its key creators and texts Scholarly and sophisticated the survey cites and interprets the works of several major African Canadian writers including Andr Alexis Dionne Brand Austin Clarke Claire Harris and M Nourbese Philip In so doing Clarke demonstrates that African Canadian writers and critics explore the tensions that exist between notions of universalism and black nationalism liberalism and conservatism These tensions are revealed in the literature in what Clarke argues to be paradoxically uniquely Canadian and proudly apart from a mainstream national identity Clarke has unearthed vital but previously unconsidered authors and charted the relationship between African Canadian literature and that of Africa African America and the Caribbean In addition to the essays Clarke has assembled a seminal and expansive bibliography of texts literature and criticism from both English and French Canada This important resource will inevitably challenge and change future academic consideration of African Canadian literature and its place in the international literary map of the African Diaspora     Quiet As It's Kept J. Brooks Bouson, 2000-01-01 Focuses on the role of shame and trauma as it looks at issues of race class color and caste in the novels of Toni Morrison     Black Man's Part in the War Harry Johnston, 1917     Claiming Land, Claiming Water Rachel B. Herrmann, Jessica Choppin Roney, 2026-04-28 Explores how and why people manipulated borders in the early modern Atlantic world Claiming Land Claiming Water shares what historians and geographers wish readers knew about maps and borders before during and after the founding of the United States The essays collected in this volume model how people can learn to interpret maps as arguments rather than as historical facts and to read maps for evidence of people and places that were elided renamed or destroyed Contributors travel through the sixteenth seventeenth eighteenth and nineteenth centuries in the place known by many names the Atlantic World the North American continent borderlands and homelands Onto this place where people exercised power over space by forging relationships colonizers came and imagined borders onto maps Featuring reproductions of twenty historical maps the book takes readers through this era of immense disruption to teach them strategies for reading and interpreting these maps critically Essays attend carefully to water alongside land and land alongside water in search of new interpretive avenues that reframe what we know about space control and sovereignty By using historical examples of people farmers fishers hunters religious leaders colonial projectors traders sailors soldiers diplomats and cartographers it becomes possible to resist the temptation to impose modern geographical constructs backwards onto the histories we read teach and write Claiming Land Claiming Water investigates why some of these people imagined and made claims to bounded space and how and why other people confounded and challenged those claims Contributors Sarah Chute Edward G Gray Kim M Gruenwald Rachel B Herrmann Christian J Koot Chad McCutchen Jennifer Monroe McCutchen John Morton Paul Musselwhite Charles Prior Karen Rann Jessica Choppin Roney Samuel Truett Harvey Amani Whitfield Alex Zukas
