

Mother to Son

by Langston Hughes

Well, son, I'll tell you,
Life for me ain't been no crystal stair,
It's had tacks in it,
And splinters,
And boards torn up,
And places with no carpet on the floor—
Bare,
But all the time
I've been a climber' on,
And reachin' landin's,
And turnin' corners,
And sometimes goin' in the dark,
Where there ain't been no light,
So boy, don't you turn back,
Don't you sit down on the steps,
'Cause you find it's kinder hard,
Don't you fall now—
For I'still goin', honey,
I'still climbin',
And life for me ain't been no crystal stair.

Lift Every Voice and Sing

by James Weldon Johnson

Lift every voice and sing,
Till earth and heaven ring,
Sing with the harmonies of Liberty,
Let our rejoicing rise
High as the list'ning skies,
Let it manumf'ed soul is the rolling sea,
Sing a song full of the faith that the dark past has taught us,
Sing a song full of the hope that the present has brought us,
Facing the rising sun of our new day begun,
Let us march on till victory is won.

Strip the road we trod,
Bitter the chafe'ning rod,
Fall in the days when hope unborn had died,
Yet with a steady beat,
Have not our weary feet
Come to the place for which our fathers sighed?
We have come over a way that with tears has been watered,
We have come, treading our path through the blood of the slaughtered,
Out from the gloomy past,
Till now we stand at last
Where the white gleam of our bright star is cast.

God of our weary years,
God of our silent tears,
Those who have brought us thus far on the way,
Those who lead by Thy right,
Lead us into the light,
Keep us forever in the path, we pray,
Lest our feet stray from the places, our God, where we met Thee,
Lest our hearts, drunk with the wine of the world, we forget Thee,
Strengthen beneath Thy hand,
