Burns, Stan Hawkins, 2019-10-17 PROSE Award for Excellence in Music and the Performing Arts Finalist 2020 Music videos promote popular artists in cultural forms that circulate widely across social media networks With the advent of YouTube in 2005 and the proliferation of handheld technologies and social networking sites the music video has become available to millions worldwide and continues to serve as a fertile platform for the debate of issues and themes in popular culture This volume of essays serves as a foundational handbook for the study and interpretation of the popular music video with the specific aim of examining the industry contexts cultural concepts and aesthetic materials that videos rely upon in order to be both intelligible and meaningful Easily accessible to viewers in everyday life music videos offer profound cultural interventions and negotiations while traversing a range of media forms From a variety of unique perspectives the contributors to this volume undertake discussions that open up new avenues for exploring the creative changes and developments in music video production With chapters that address music video authorship distribution cultural representations mediations aesthetics and discourses this study signals a major initiative to provide a deeper understanding of the intersecting and interdisciplinary approaches that are invoked in the analysis of this popular and influential musical form Who You Think I Am? Sebastian Berlich, 2023-10-27 Pop stars are close to us In their songs their pictures their stories on Instagram What we are looking for is an authentic impression Real feelings on real faces But what happens when they cover their face with a mask Permanently as a second face The phenomenon can be found in the mainstream as well as in the underground The mask does not break with the ideal of authenticity Rather depending on how it is staged it refers to the most diverse discourses can appear cool or grotesque become a logo or create anonymity The essay uses mainly two examples Sido Slipknot to show how the mask constructs the persona of pop stars and thus reveals structures of pop music The translation was done with the help of artificial intelligence A subsequent human revision was done primarily in terms of content

Music/Video Gina Arnold, Daniel Cookney, Kirsty Fairclough, Michael N. Goddard, 2017-08-10 This book is a lively comprehensive and timely reader on the music video capitalising on cross disciplinary research expertise which represents a substantial academic engagement with the music video a mediated form and practice that still remains relatively under explored in a 21st century context The music video has remained suspended between two distinct poles On the one hand the music video as the visual sheen of late capitalism at the intersection of celebrity studies and postmodernism On the other hand the music video as art looking to a prehistory of avant garde film making while perpetually pushing forward the digital frontier with a taste for anarchy controversy and the integration of special effects into a form designed to be disseminated across digital platforms In this way the music video virally re engenders debates about high art and low culture This collection presents a comprehensive account of the music video from a contemporary 21st century perspective This entails revisiting key moments in the canonical history of the music video exploring its articulations of sexuality and gender examining its functioning as a form of artistic expression between music film and video art and following the music video s dissemination into the digital domain considering how digital media and social media have come to re invent the forms and functions of the music video well beyond the limits of music television
