Black Masque:

Ted Joans Ted Joans, 1999 Black Dues Black Blues Black News Ted Joans trumpets in his tribute to Langston Hughes What Library Journal wrote in 1969 holds true today This collection of his work clearly reveals the influence of Langston Hughes his mentor and friend Joans however has the harsher and more strident tone necessary to accurately reflect today's society As he says in one poem We must fall in love and glorify our beautiful black nation We must create black images give the world a black education One of the first black poets to become involved in surrealism and a first generation Beat Joans is an expatriate poet whose work is enjoying renewed interest This major collection of poems written during the past forty years is a significant contribution to American letters Ted Joans is the first single volume collection representing the life's work of Joans a once roommate of Charlie Parker and a contemporary of Allen Ginsberg and Bob Kaufman Energetic African American Beat poet surrealist painter longtime Paris based expatriate African traveler jazz expert and jazz musician the versatile 71 year old Joans Black Pow Wow Jazz Poems has published 35 books but never till now a selected Joans's rakish unsatisfiable sensibility can make his work in Beat modes as technically innovative as Burroughs as polemically exuberant as Ginsberg and as comic as Corso His early work like theirs depends heavily on surrealist modes The rhino roam in the bedroom where the lovely virgin wait the owl eats a Baptist bat and God almighty is too late The masterful longer Timbuktu Tit Tat Toe packs a few hundred years of Black America's relationship to Africa into four pages of giddy declamation Like Amiri Baraka who lauds Joans's verse Joans came to embrace an aesthetic of people's poetry creating exuberant forms to meet his needs stirring the pot with neologism and slogan and calling on an arsenal of heroes from Malcolm X to Jean Michael Basquiat And Then There Were None locates political rage in Louis Armstrong's famous grin you tried to turn him into your musical golliwog doll you wanted his trumpet to blow what you said so you misinterpreted his wide smile Repudiatin

Object Performance in the Black Atlantic Paulette Richards, 2023-07-28 Given that slaveholders prohibited the creation of African style performing objects is there a traceable connection between traditional African puppets masks and performing objects and contemporary African American puppetry This study approaches the question by looking at the whole performance complex surrounding African performing objects and examines the material culture of object performance Object Performance in the Black Atlantic argues that since human beings can attribute private personal meanings to objects obtained for personal use such as dolls vessels and quilts the lines of material culture continuity between African and African American object performance run through objects that performed in ritual rather than theatrical capacity Split into three parts this book starts by outlining the spaces where the African American object performance complex persisted through the period of slavery Part Two traces how African Americans began to reclaim object performance in the era of Jim Crow segregation and Part Three details how increased educational and economic opportunities along with new media technologies enabled African Americans to use performing objects as a powerful mode of resistance to the objectification of

Black bodies This is an essential study for any students of puppetry and material performance and particularly those concerned with African American performance and performance in North America more broadly
