Darkness Ahead: Part 1 Lijah Phoenix, The World has grown dark and desolate and Mason is alone He travels on an old road heading into the horizon without a destination His only goal is survival But survival in the desolate wasteland around him isn't easy He must fight hunger Fight thirst Loneliness And he must fight his way onward against vicious beasts that attack in the night Will he ever reach an end And will that end be better or worse than his present circumstances Maybe the rumors were wrong maybe there's only darkness ahead The corroded road swept below me and the darkness dredged on They said it would be better here They said that the road would end and that it would end in a place better than where it started I was eight years old then I had a family then Now I have grown The years have waged on each one darker than the last Both sky and hope darker than they once were This work is a short story and is just over eight thousand words
