

FLU-STRIKEN Bonnie Tyler last week overhauled Michael Jackson to capture the number one spot for the first time in her career with Total Eclipse Of The Heart. That's a three place improvement on the peak attained by Bonnie's previous biggest hit, 1977's 'It's A Heartache'.

They'll certainly keep a welcome in the hitboxes for Bonnie who's only the third Welsh lady to land a number one following Shirley Bassey (1959 and 1961) and Mary Hopkin (1968). Tyler's raunchy rock 'n' roll stance is some distance from the folksy style of Hopkin or Bassey's over-dramatic ballads.

Indeed, despite her protestations to the contrary, Ms. Tyler is cultivating an overtly rock persona, and, to that end, she has taken to telling the press that 'Lost In France' was her first single, conveniently overlooking a trashy piece of candy floss called 'My My Honeycomb' which actually marked her recording debut in 1976. 'Lost In France' was the follow-up to that record and was a substantial hit justifying RCA's extravagant gesture in flying a plenitude of journalists to Paris to meet Bonnie.

'Total Eclipse' is also the first number one for composer Jim Steinman whose previous personal best was the No. 15 peak of 'Bar Out Of Hell' which he wrote for Meat Loaf in 1979.

THE NAME GAME: Researchers for the syndicated US radio programme 'American Top Forty' recently surveyed top forty hitmakers to find out the most common surname amongst soloists who've made the US chart in the last twenty-five years. Despite strong opposition from the massed ranks of Jacksons, Joneses, Kings, Marrins, Williams and WilcoAs the surname shared by more hitmakers than any other turned out to be Brown. Inspired by this March madness, Chartfile has conducted a similar survey of the British singles chart. The surname which emerged head and shoulders above the rest has featured in the chart courtesy of Andy, Billy, Danny, Denise, Diana, Don, Iris, two different Johns, Kenny, Larry, Lenny and Mason. That's a grand total of thirteen soloists who've earned the name of Williams into the chart. Runners-up were the Joneses (10) followed by Miller, Harris and Jackson with eight each. US champions, the Browns, totalled only six, though there were also three Brownies.

A bizarre variation of the name game occurred in 1960 when an Englishman and a Yankee whose names differed by just one letter vied for US chart honours with similar versions of the same song.

BONNIE TYLER: a great debut scandal

The Englishman was Garry Miles whose original version of 'Look For A Star' had been recorded originally for the excellent British horror movie 'Circus Of Horrors'. It became very popular here and was soon climbing the charts. Then, in a complete reversal of the normal pattern —

British acts regularly put out quick-fire covers of American material — two American artists recorded 'Look For A Star' for the American market. One was an instrumental version by veteran saxophonist Billy Vaughn and the other was by Burr Cason, a member of the Statues. Cason's recording of 'Look For A Star' was released under the name Garry Miles. Faced with two similar versions of the same song by singers named Garry Miles and Garry Miles caused not a little confusion to American record buyers. Eventually Miles (Cason) pulled clear, peaking at No. 16, a full ten places clear of his British rival, and three places higher than Billy Vaughn. A few years later Cason co-wrote 'Love Affair''s number one, 'Everlasting Love'.

In 1978, it was the British public's turn to be confused as the Jacksons brought out a version of Englishman Mick Jackson's 'Blame It On The Boogie'. Both records became top twenty hits and, though Mick Jackson slugged the group for their shabby opportunism, it's probably true to say that he did very well out of the fracas. Certainly many people bought his record expecting it to be sung by the better-known Michael Jackson.

There have been many cases of individuals with the same name appearing in chart-making acts simultaneously including three very recent examples. Kid Creole is the name of the man who's steered the Coconuts to several hits, but it's also the name of a member of Grandmaster Flash's Furious Five. Mick Jones is the name shared by Foreigner's lead guitarist and the Clash's lead guitarist, Roger Taylor is a name which causes confusion at EMI, being the name shared by drummers with two of the company's top groups, Queen and Duran Duran. Nor is that the only confusion surrounding Duran Duran, besides Roger Taylor, the group also includes John and Andy Taylor...

The Irish influx mentioned in last week's Chartfile continues to gather pace. The arrival of the Undertones in the singles chart brings the Irish contingent to seven. In the album chart last week's two highest new entries were also by Irish groups. Thin Lizzy's 'Thunder And Lightning' entered at No. 4, and U2's 'War' made a spectacular debut, capturing the number one spot from Michael Jackson. The first Irish act to reach number one on the album listings was Gilbert O'Sullivan who did so in 1973 with 'Back To Front'.

Michael Omartian, best-known for his work with Christopher Cross, has been contracted to produce Donna Summer's next album much to the displeasure of Donna's current producer Quincy Jones. Omartian, who makes albums of his own for a small religious label, plans to team Summer and Cross in a duet if Cross's schedule allows. More definite is the duet between Meat Loaf and Dale Gribble, the lady who used to sing with the Rossington Collins Band. This has already been recorded and will be included on Meat's sooncoming album. More intriguingly, George Harrison and Cilla Black are poised to work together for the first time in many years following a chance meeting at a London restaurant. Over past, Cilla enquired what happened to the tapes she and George had worked on in 1974 when Harrison was hoping to produce an album for Cilla. Harrison replied that he still has the tapes and that he'd still like to produce Cilla. Before going their separate ways the Liverpudlians agreed to get together again very soon. As a result George is said to be beavering away in Oxfordshire putting together some suitable material for Cilla.

Collectors of vinyl oddities should be on the lookout for a blue bell-shaped disc by — surprise! — the Bluebells and a Ca Va Ca Va picture disc in the shape of a painting pallet.
