Hayne, 1997-12-15 Canada is facing a critical period in its history The Royal Society of Canada believed it had the responsibility to instigate both deep reflection and debate within the vast and diverse intellectual network it represents throughout Canada In November 1996 the Fellows of all three Academies of the Society gathered to discuss perspectives on Canada s future Nationalism from the Margins Patricia K. Wood, 2004-06-03 In Nationalism from the Margins Patricia Wood offers a fresh approach to the study of immigration adaptation and collective and individual identity formation In analysing a century of Italian migration to Alberta and British Columbia Wood documents a multicultural experience and vision of Canada that long preceded the official policy of 1971 She argues that nationalism is not one idea but a relationship of voices speaking from varying levels of political and social power and to varying audiences The Italian understanding of what it means to belong to Canada does not require the abandonment of ethnic identity but instead demonstrates the ways in which layers of identity intersect Wood introduces the more spatial concept of relocation and emphasizes the complex and negotiated nature of immigrant identities She highlights the immigrants roles as active participants in the creation of their own local regional and national spaces underlining the importance of an interdisciplinary approach to immigrant history Highlighting the marginalized status of these immigrants as Southern Europeans Catholics and residents of western Canada Wood brings their voice to the centre and shows them to be agents in the production of their identities Canadian Books in Print.
