Academic Writing Course R. R. Jordan,1980 Academic Writing Step by Step Christopher Candlin,Christopher N. Candlin,Peter Crompton,Basil Hatim,2015-09 Academic Writing Step by Step offers a new methodology for teaching academic writing informed by discourse analysis and genre theory and by recent research in text analysis It focuses on types of texts purposively written for particular contexts where writers introduce and contextualize research findings and new knowledge while presenting their own points of view in relation to those of others The book promotes learning by doing engaging research writers with authentic materials as models of good practice The book begins by examining what academic writers do in planning their writing and how they implement these plans in their own writing practice The book draws on accessible articles presenting popular science topics of current interest to illustrate and practice the processes involved in developing and writing an academic essay or research paper step by step Each unit in Academic Writing Step by Step involves the user in guided hands on practical analysis of an exemplar text This analysis forms the basis for a sequence of learning activities directing students to engage with the text moving from analysis reading for intent to composition writing with intent In this structured process students acquire a critical understanding of the components of research and essay writing to underpin their own writing Support for students analysis and writing of texts includes pre reading while reading and post reading activities These activities are linked to practice in the recognition and use of words in context grammar in context and distinctive features of text types Each unit contains many interactive tasks and closes with a substantive writing assignment reinforcing at least one component of academic writing highlighted in the unit The book s research based big picture approach backed up by textual evidence is effective in developing students practical knowledge of research and essay writing This approach is also motivational empowering students to work in their own disciplinary environments and areas of interest as it engages them in academic reading analysis research and writing The book is designed as a textbook for academic or research writing courses and its step by step approach makes it usable by university undergraduates or senior secondary students including those for whom English is a second or foreign language In addition its authentic readings and focus on academic and research writing makes it also suitable for graduate level writing courses in English speaking and English as a second or foreign language contexts

Embracing Writing Gary R. Hafer,2014-09-29 Embracing WRITING Embracing Writing responds to the writing across the curriculum movement in a way that enables educators to integrate writing into their courses not just painlessly but productively instead of simply increasing their workloads with writing assignments that students dislike Embracing Writing elucidates the principles of academic writing and shows instructors how to integrate writing with course content blending them to enhance and deepen the higher education learning process Scholarly writing is a central part of the academic experience and when used effectively can be an outstanding pedagogical tool The creative approach in Embracing Writing will have you looking at writing in a whole new way Not only will your students appreciate the honest nurturing and fun writing assignments but your own writing will improve as well This is not a rulebook for writers but a guided approach to viewing writing and content as one indivisible whole Embracing Writing will help you Engage students in writing assignments that actually help them develop their writing ability Understand what makes good collegiate writing and how it can aid in content discovery Discover new pathways for your own writing so writing for publication and the classroom is enjoyable again Develop a writing pedagogy that doesn't detract from core course content delivery There often is a disconnect between administrative demands for in course writing and the inadequate training resources available to faculty members Because most of us aren't trained as writers we need a meaningful way to connect writing to our areas of expertise Embracing Writing provides that connection
