A Complete Course in College Writing Evelyn B. Melamed, Harvey Minkoff, 1984 Guide to College Writing Assessment Peggy O'Neill, Cindy Moore, Brian Huot, 2009-04-15 While most English professionals feel comfortable with language and literacy theories assessment theories seem more alien English professionals often don't have a clear understanding of the key concepts in educational measurement such as validity and reliability nor do they understand the statistical formulas associated with psychometrics But understanding assessment theory and applying it by those who are not psychometricians is critical in developing useful ethical assessments in college writing programs and in interpreting and using assessment results A Guide to College Writing Assessment is designed as an introduction and source book for WPAs department chairs teachers and administrators Always cognizant of the critical components of particular teaching contexts O'Neill Moore and Huot have written sophisticated but accessible chapters on the history theory application and background of writing assessment and they offer a dozen appendices of practical samples and models for a range of common assessment needs Because there are numerous resources available to assist faculty in assessing the writing of individual students in particular classrooms A Guide to College Writing Assessment focuses on approaches to the kinds of assessment that typically happen outside of individual classrooms placement evaluation exit examination programmatic assessment and faculty evaluation Most of all the argument of this book is that creating the conditions for meaningful college writing assessment hinges not only on understanding the history and theories informing assessment practice but also on composition programs availing themselves of the full range of available assessment practices Teach College Writing Jason Bellipanni, 2013-02-01

Placing the History of College Writing Nathan Shepley, 2016-03-22 Pre 1950s composition history if analyzed with the right conceptual tools can pluralize and clarify our understanding of the relationship between the writing of college students and the writing's physical social and discursive surroundings A Guide to College Writing Chris Anson, 2016 For courses in First Year Composition Rhetoric Helps students navigate the challenges of writing in all college level courses A Guide to College Writing is both an excellent introduction to college writing for composition courses that emphasize writing across the curriculum WAC and a writing guide for use in any college course Scholar and former CWPA president Chris Anson brings his research on and knowledge of WAC threshold concepts and transference to this first year writing text Anson offers a refreshing new choice to faculty seeking support in teaching the features and forms of other disciplines The text does not teach any one form but rather how to observe analyze and reproduce the forms and intellectual strategies of whatever the students might be asked to read and write Students are walked through the writing process beginning with shorter lower stakes microtheme assignments and scaffolding toward longer sustained formal projects typical of their discipline Throughout students learn how to use writing as a learning tool Also available with Pearson Writer Pearson Writer is a revolutionary digital tool for writers at all levels Built for mobile devices it streamlines the tedious and time consuming aspects of writing so that students can focus on developing their ideas Pearson Writer makes it easy to stay organized track tasks and stay on top of writing projects Students can set milestones prior to the due date manage their sources organize their notes visually in the Notebook and even get automatic feedback on their prose Pearson Writer is now available with Noteclipper which allows students to save online sources quickly and easily Students if interested in purchasing this title with Pearson Writer ask your instructor for the correct package ISBN and Course ID Instructors contact your Pearson representative for more information

Reaching All Writers Joanne Baird Giordano, Holly Hassel, Jennifer Heinert, Cassandra Phillips, 2024-02-21 Reaching All Writers brings together decades of writing studies experience research and scholarship to help organize first year writing courses around inclusive teaching practices and foundational concepts that support disciplinary learning for all college writers including students who have been excluded from more selective higher education institutions Using threshold concepts and transfer as a foundation the authors provide an invaluable resource for multiple contexts instructors working off the tenure track and or at multiple institutions two year college programs without a writing program administrator and writing program graduate teaching assistant training courses Each chapter includes an overview of a threshold concept disciplinary background readings practical teaching strategies assignment and learning activity ideas assessment principles examples from student and instructor perspectives and questions for reflection and discussion Reaching All Writers describes effective teaching practices to help all college writing instructors regardless of their institutional contexts make changes that support equitable and inclusive learning opportunities with a focus on teaching students whose backgrounds and learning experiences are different from those with more educational or economic privilege Both new and experienced teachers adapting first year college writing courses will find the book's blend of practical strategies and disciplinary knowledge a useful companion for facilitating new classroom and program needs or designing new teaching assistant training courses

Administering Writing Programs in the Twenty-First Century Tiffany Bourelle, Beth L. Hewett, Scott Warnock, 2021-12-30 This book is a comprehensive guide to administering writing programs at a moment when communication and thus the teaching of writing is always changing A companion to Teaching Writing in the Twenty First Century which considers how writing instructors can successfully adapt to new challenges this volume addresses the concerns of both novice and experienced writing program administrators It includes guidance on building and assessing writing programs on hiring training evaluating and mentoring instructors on eliminating cultural bias on encouraging the well being of administrators and instructors on assignments and instructional tools and on access diversity and inclusion Aiming to help administrators develop thoughtful effective approaches to using technology in writing programs the book also provides information designed to support instructors in their teaching of rhetorical literacy strategies regardless of the environment or medium in which students compose and communicate
