Horrifying Children Lauren Stephenson, Robert Edgar, John Marland, 2024-03-07 Horrifying Children examines weird and eerie children's television and literature via critical analysis memoir and autoethnography There has been an explosion of interest in the impact of children's television and literature of the late twentieth century In particular the 1970s 80s and 90s are seen as decades that shaped a great deal of the contemporary cultural landscape Television of this period dominated the world of childhood entertainment drawing freely upon literature and popular culture like the Garbage Pail Kids and Stranger Things and much of it continues to resonate powerfully with the generation of cultural producers fiction writers screenwriters directors musicians and artists that grew up watching the weird the eerie and the horrific the essence of 21st century Hauntology In these terms this book is not about children's television as it exists now but rather as it features as a facet of memory in the 21st century As such it is the legacy of these television programmes that is at the core of Horrifying Children The haunting of adults by what we have seen on the screen is crucial to the study This collection directly addresses that which scared us in the past inasmuch as there is a correlation between individual and collective cultural memory with some chapters providing an opportunity for situating existing explorations and understandings of Gothic and Horror TV within a hauntological and experiential framework

Popular television drama Jonathan Bignell, Stephen Lacey, 2017-06-01 Popular television drama critical perspectives is a collection of essays examining landmark programmes of the last forty years from Doctor Who to The Office and from The Demon Headmaster to Queer As Folk Contributions from prominent academics focus on the full range of popular genres from sitcoms to science fiction gothic horror and children's drama and challenge received wisdom by reconsidering how British television drama can be analysed Each section is preceded by an introduction in which the editors discuss how the essays address existing problems in the field and also suggest new directions for study The book is split into three sections addressing the enduring appeal of popular genres the notion of quality in television drama and analysing a range of programmes past and present Popular television drama critical perspectives will be of interest to students and researchers in many academic disciplines that study television drama Its breadth and focus on popular programmes will also appeal to those interested in the shows themselves

The Demon Headmaster Strikes Again Gillian Cross,2001-08-30 The Demon Headmaster is in charge of a scientific research centre and has created an Evolution Accelerator a machine to speed up the evolution process and produce the perfect human But for this he needs Dinah s DNA and then plans to put her into terrible danger to test his theories

The Demon Headmaster Gillian Cross,Judy (read by) BENNETT,1990 Talking Books James Carter,2013-01-11 Talking Books sets out to show how some of the leading children s authors of the day respond to these and other similar questions The authors featured are Neil Ardley Ian Beck Helen Cresswell Gillian Cross Terry Deary Berlie Doherty Alan Durant Brian Moses Philip Pullman Celia Rees Norman Silver Jacqueline Wilson and Benjamin Zephaniah They discuss with great enthusiasm their childhood reading habits how they came to be published how they write on a daily basis how a particular book came together a type of writing that they are especially known for Through in depth interviews they each reveal their approach to their craft Much is know and spoken of the product that is the children s book but it is rare that writers are given the opportunity to talk at length about the process of writing for children Talking Books redresses the balance by presenting a wide selection of authors of fiction non fiction and poetry reflecting upon the joys and challenges of the craft creativity and process of writing for children

Facing the Demon Headmaster Gillian Cross,2012-06-07 Club Purple is the place to be What makes it so fantastic is the mysterious DJ Pardoman who keeps his face hidden behind an ever changing electronic mask When a competition is announced to unmask him everyone wants to know who s behind it To win entrants have to find out as much as possible about DJ Pardoman Of course Dinah Lloyd Harvey and the other SPLAT Society for the Protection of our Lives Against Them members want to try their hand at winning During their research Dinah makes a discovery on the internet something she can t even tell the rest of SPLAT about But when she goes off to investigate alone she doesn t realize that she s being lured into a trap set by the Demon Headmaster Can SPLAT foil his evil plans once more Or will the Headmaster succeed in using Dinah in his mission to control the country
