From Small Places Jo Anne Wilson-Keenan, 2015-10-14 From Small Places Toward the Realization of Literacy as a Human Right brings together history theory research and practices that can lead to the realization of this right both in itself and as a means of achieving other rights The premise of this book is that this right begins early in life within small places across the world This idea originates from the words of Eleanor Roosevelt Chair of the Commission that drafted the Universal Declaration of Human Rights UDHR Where after all do universal human rights begin In small places close to home so close and so small that they cannot be seen on any map of the world Unless these rights have meaning there they have little meaning anywhere Herein literacy is viewed as a life long social process Literacy includes reading writing and new literacies that are evolving along with new technologies The book includes an examination of the evolution of literacy as a human right from 1948 the time of the writing of the UDHR to the present Barriers to the realization of literacy as a human right including the pedagogy of poverty and pathologizing the language of poor children are explored The book also describes theory research and practices that can serve to dismantle these barriers It includes research about brain development language and literacy development from birth to the age of six and examples of practices and community initiatives that honor support and build upon children's language and literacy

Small Stories, Interaction and Identities Alexandra Georgakopoulou, 2007-08-08 Narrative research is frequently described as a diverse enterprise yet the kinds of narrative data that it bases itself on present a striking consensus they tend to be autobiographical and elicited in interviews This book sets out to carve out a space alongside this narrative canon for stories that have not made it to the mainstream of narrative and identity analysis yet they abound as well as being crucial sites of subjectivity in everyday interactional contexts By labelling those stories as small the book emphasizes their distinctiveness both interactionally and as an antidote to the tradition of grand narratives research Drawing primarily on the audio recorded small stories of a group of female adolescents that was studied ethnographically in a town in Greece the book follows a language focused and practice based approach in order to provide fresh answers and perspectives on some of the perennial questions of narrative analysis How can we re conceptualize the mainstay concepts of tellership structure and evaluation in small stories How do the participants telling identities connect with their larger social identities Finally what does the project of storying self and other mean in small stories and how can it be best explored

The Big Influence of Small Things Brett Blair,Tim Carpenter,2003 Anyone who has done children s sermons will sooner or later hear from someone that I learn more from the children s sermon than I do from the real sermon And indeed the truths of scripture are so simple that even a child can understand them So it s no accident that children s sermons have become a central part of the worship service in many churches Brett Blair and Tim Carpenter offer a year s worth of object lessons that engage children and impart profound lessons for all ages Two sermons are provided for each Sunday in Cycle A of the Revised Common Lectionary one based on the Second Lesson and one based on the Gospel The messages are structured in two parts the lesson uses an object to draw out active responses from children then the application connects that object to the assigned scripture reading Each message includes a clear statement of its exegetical aim Bright innovative perceptive creative grace filled Brett Blair and Tim Carpenter are all of those and much much more and that is reflected beautifully in their new book The Big Influence Of Small Things James W Moore Pastor St Luke s United Methodist Church Houston Texas Brett Blair is the pastor of Scenic Hills United Methodist Church in Memphis Tennessee He holds the M Div degree from Yale University Divinity School and is a cum laude graduate of Oral Roberts University with B A and M A degrees in New Testament Literature Tim Carpenter is the pastor of First United Methodist Church in Bolivar Tennessee He is a magna cum laude graduate from Memphis Theological Seminary with a M Div degree and holds the B A degree in Political Science from the University of Florida
