Cognitivefunctional Approach To Nominalization In English:

A Cognitive-Functional Approach to Nominalization in English Liesbet Heyvaert, 2015-06-03 The book presents a systematic theoretical account of the fundamental constructional mechanisms that underlie deverbal nominalization in general and it makes an original descriptive contribution by discussing a number of nominalization systems in detail The main theoretical motif is that nominalization strongly calls for a functional rather than purely structural approach The book goes more deeply into a number of functional constructs needed to model nominalization drawn from Cognitive Grammar and Systemic Functional Grammar and it elaborates on the internal functional organization of nominal and clausal structure e g the notions of type specification instantiation and grounding Langacker 1991 are discussed in detail and shown to be crucial for the analysis of deverbal nominalization It is argued that deverbal nominalizations are basically re classifications of verbal predicates into nominal constructions This re classification either applies at word rank or it involves the rank shift Halliday 1966 of a clause like unit with its internal structure preserved e g signing the contract quickly The re classified unit then adopts a specific nominal strategy with some form of nominal determination and quantification e g her signing the contract quickly The descriptive part of the book zooms in on nominalizations that are derived at word rank deverbal er nominals and on nominalizations applying to a temporal clausal heads e g John s playing the piano and finite clauses Of the gerundive and finite types of nominalization those that function in factive contexts are focused on In the analysis of deverbal er nominals a case is made for a subject analysis of the system and an elaborate discussion of the clausal middle construction e g this book reads easily which is argued to show systematic resemblances with non agentive er nominals is included Of the remaining nominalization types John s playing the piano playing the piano the fact that he plays the piano that he plays the piano especially the nominal behaviour e g proper name vs common noun strategy and in the case of gerundive nominals the various structural and semantic subtypes that can be distinguished among them are discussed

The Semantics of Nominalizations across Languages and Frameworks Monika Rathert, Artemis Alexiadou, 2010-08-31 The volume explores the semantics of nominalizations from different theoretical points of view formal and lexical semantics cognitive functional grammar lexical functional grammar discourse representation theory Data from a variety of languages are taken into account including Hungarian Italian French German and English The papers discuss the semantics of distinct readings of nominalizations and meaning differences observed between competing affixes

Corpus-based Approaches to Grammar, Media and Health Discourses Bingjun Yang, Wen Li, 2020-06-23 This edited volume gathers corpus based studies on topics including English grammar and discourses on media and health mainly from a systemic functional linguistics SFL perspective in order to reveal the potential of SFL which has been emphasized by Halliday Various other perspectives such as philosophy statistics genre studies etc are also included to promote SFL s potential interaction with other theories Though they employ a diverse range of theoretical perspectives all the chapters focus on exploring language in use with the corpus method The studies collected here are all original unpublished research articles that address significant questions deepen readers understanding of SFL and promote its potential interaction with other theories In addition they demonstrate the great potential that SFL holds for solving language related questions in a variety of discourses From Will to Well Stefaan Slembrouck, Miriam Taverniers, Mieke van Herreweghe, 2009 Meaning Making in Text S. Starc, C. Jones, A. Maiorani, 2015-05-05 Meaning Making in Text presents new insights into forms of communication in a range of contexts cultural linguistic multimodal and educational The thirteen chapters are all linked theoretically by advances in Systemic Functional Linguistics SFL Asymmetric Events Barbara Lewandowska-Tomaszczyk, 2008 The book introduces the concept of asymmetric events an important concept in language and cognition which for the first time in linguistic literature is identified in a more systematic way and analyzed in a number of different languages including typologically or genetically unrelated ones Asymmetric events are two or more events of unequal status in an utterance and papers in the volume present ways in which a linguistic description of main events in a sentence is different morphologically syntactically discursively from a description of backgrounded events The prototypical asymmetries involving perception cognition and language are identified in subordination nominalization and modification of various kinds but they extend to coordinate structures serial verbs spatial language and viewing arrangement as well as part whole relations The perspective is broadly cognitive and functional the authors use different though complementing methodologies some include corpus data and the asymmetries are shown to have a variety of stylistic and ideological implications An in depth analysis of manifold asymmetries in structure and function of diverse languages makes this volume of interest to linguists of different persuasion philosophers cognitive researchers discourse analysts and students of language and cognition Cognitive Approaches to English Mario Brdar, Marija Omazić, Višnja Pavičić Takač, 2009 The present volume contains a selection of papers presented at the conference Cognitive Approaches to English an international event organized to mark the 30th anniversary of English studies at the Faculty of Philosophy Josip Juraj Strossmayer University Osijek which was held in Osijek on October 18 19 2007 The participants were invited to discuss issues in cognitive accounts of English ranging from fundamental to methodological to interdisciplinary and applied The volume is accordingly divided into four parts Part I Motivation in grammar deals with various phenomena in the grammar of English in the broadest sense of the term all of which are shown to be motivated by metaphorical and or metonymic operations Part II Constructing meaning between grammar and lexicon contains five chapters dealing with phenomena ranging from various peculiarities of form meaning pairings such as synonymy polysemy and figurative meanings to concept formation The four chapters that make up Part III are concerned with the phenomenon of interlinguistic and intercultural variation in the use of metaphorical and metonymic processes The volume is concluded by Part IV the three papers of which attempt to reconsider some TEFL issues from a cognitive linguistic point of view Nominalization in English-Greek Translation Lamprini Kosma, University of the West of England, 2006
