Cold Comfort:

Modernity Must Drive Ann Martin, Christopher Townsend, 2025-12-11 Provides nuanced analyses of modernist engagements with car culture

Representing Rural Women Margaret Thomas-Evans, Whitney Womack Smith, 2019-06-27 Representing Rural Women highlights the complexity and diversity of representations of rural women in the U S and Canada from the nineteenth to twenty first centuries The 15 chapters in this collection offer fresh perspectives on representations of rural women in literature popular culture and print digital and social media They explore a wide range of time periods geographic spaces and rural women s experiences including Mormon pioneer women rural lesbians in the 1970s Canadian rural women s organizations and rural trans youth In their stories these women and girls navigate the complex realities of rural life create spaces for self expression develop networks to communicate their experiences and challenge misconceptions and stereotypes of rural womanhood The chapters in this collection consider the ways that rural geography allows freedoms as well as imposes constraints on women s lives and explore how cultural representations of rural womanhood both reflect and shape women s experiences

Cold Comfort Maggie Anderson, 1986 Cold Comfort is a book of poems written out of deep affection and concern for the world in a dangerous time An urbane stylist Anderson characteristically focuses on rural and small town America where the events of personal history intersect those of the larger world

Women, Celebrity, and Literary Culture between the Wars Faye Hammill, 2009-12-03 As mass media burgeoned in the years between the first and second world wars so did another phenomenon celebrity Beginning in Hollywood with the studio orchestrated transformation of uncredited actors into brand name stars celebrity also spread to writers whose personal appearances and private lives came to fascinate readers as much as their work Women Celebrity and Literary Culture between the Wars profiles seven American Canadian and British women writers Dorothy Parker Anita Loos Mae West L M Montgomery Margaret Kennedy Stella Gibbons and E M Delafield who achieved literary celebrity in the 1920s and 1930s and whose work remains popular even today Faye Hammill investigates how the fame and commercial success of these writers as well as their gender affected the literary reception of their work She explores how women writers sought to fashion their own celebrity images through various kinds of public performance and how the media appropriated these writers for particular cultural discourses She also reassesses the relationship between celebrity culture and literary culture demonstrating how the commercial success of these writers caused literary elites to denigrate their writing as middlebrow despite the fact that their work often challenged middle class ideals of marriage home and family and complicated class categories and lines of social discrimination The first comparative study of North American and British literary celebrity Women Celebrity and Literary Culture between the Wars offers a nuanced appreciation of the middlebrow in relation to modernism and popular culture
