Collaborative Programs In Indigenous Communities:

Collaborative Programs in Indigenous Communities Barbara Harrison,2001 This book is an important reference for developing collaborative programs between indigenous groups and outside experts The author outlines the process of program design data collection analysis and interpretation for formal or pilot programs The case study materials provide useful detail for developing projects in education economic development social services and health Indigenous Peoples and the Collaborative Stewardship of Nature Anne Ross,2011 Involving Indigenous peoples and traditional knowledge into natural resource management produces more equitable and successful outcomes Unfortunately argue Anne Ross and co authors even many progressive methods fail to produce truly equal partnerships This book offers a comprehensive and global overview of the theoretical methodological and practical dimensions of co management The authors critically evaluate the range of management options that claim to have integrated Indigenous peoples and knowledge and then outline an innovative alternative model of co management the Indigenous Stewardship Model They provide detailed case studies and concrete details for application in a variety of contexts Broad in coverage and uniting robust theoretical insights with applied detail this book is ideal for scholars and students as well as for professionals in resource management and policy

School-Parent Collaborations in Indigenous Communities Iris Manor-Binyamini,2013-10-31 Poverty Lack of social support Limited access to education High risk for health problems Indigenous communities face an inordinate number of hardships But when children have special needs these problems multiply exponentially making existing difficulties considerably worse School Parent Collaborations in Indigenous Communities Providing Services for Children with Disabilities begins with an in depth overview of indigenous experience and psychology and situates disabilities within the contexts of indigenous communities and education services The pilot study at the core of the book conducted among the Bedouins of southern Israel shows this knowledge in action as special education personnel engage parents in interventions for their children Going beyond facile concepts of cultural sensitivity the model recasts professionals as cultural mediators between school and family This practice oriented information has the potential to improve not only the well being of children and families but of the greater community as well Featured in the coverage Unique characteristics of indigenous communities and children with disabilities Psychological models of reactions to disability Benefits of multidisciplinary teams Factors affecting collaboration between indigenous parents of children with disabilities and school professionals Core principles of indigenously attuned collaboration An extended case study on collaboration between parents of children with disabilities and school professionals in a Bedouin community School Parent Collaborations in Indigenous Communities is a breakthrough resource for researchers graduate students and professionals working with special needs children in child and school psychology international and comparative education social work cross cultural psychology public health and educational psychology Ethnography in Action Jean J. Schensul,Margaret D. LeCompte,2016-01-14 This is Book 7 of 7 in the Ethnographer s Toolkit Second Edition

In Ethnography in Action Jean J Schensul and Margaret D LeCompte explore how ethnographic research intersects with and enhances numerous areas of practice Schensul and LeCompte ground this book in the understanding that all applied or practice oriented social science must be collaborative to be effective Showing how informal and formal ethnographic methods and knowledge contribute to the arenas in which ethnographers work the authors cover both the typical practice settings raised in earlier books in the series and introduce two emerging arenas of concern long term fieldwork and participatory action research With its methodological focus and skillful integration of guidelines checklists examples and resources Book 7 offers a unique guide to the practice of mixed methods ethnography over time and with community involvement Other books in the set Book 1 Designing and Conducting Ethnographic Research An Introduction Second Edition by Margaret D LeCompte and Jean J Schensul 9780759118690 Book 2 Initiating Ethnographic Research A Mixed Methods Approach by Stephen L Schensul Jean J Schensul and Margaret D LeCompte 9780759122017 Book 3 Essential Ethnographic Methods A Mixed Methods Approach Second Edition by Jean J Schensul and Margaret D LeCompte 9780759122031 Book 4 Specialized Ethnographic Methods A Mixed Methods Approach edited by Jean J Schensul and Margaret D LeCompte 9780759122055 Book 5 Analysis and Interpretation of Ethnographic Data A Mixed Methods Approach Second Edition by Margaret D LeCompte and Jean J Schensul 9780759122079 Book 6 Ethics in Ethnography A Mixed Methods Approach by Margaret D LeCompte and Jean J Schensul 9780759122093

Developments Beyond the Asterisk Heather J. Shotton, Stephanie J. Waterman, Natalie R. Youngbull, Shelly C. Lowe, 2023-12-01 This edited volume serves as a follow up to Beyond the Asterisk Understanding Native Students in Higher Education focusing on new scholarship continued conversations and growth in the field of Indigenous higher education The landscape of higher education has changed significantly over the past decade likewise Indigenous higher education has grown into its own respective field with emerging scholarship that is written for and by Indigenous people This book focuses on this growth revisiting relevant topics in Indigenous higher education while adding new and expanded research and insight from emerging scholars and practitioners including chapters on Indigenous LGBTQIA and Two Spirit students and Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islanders The voices of Indigenous scholars who are challenging the status quo in higher education have grown louder and institutions and organizations have increasingly begun to respond This volume is essential to continued conversations in Indigenous higher education and invites current emerging and future scholars to carry the conversation forward in respectful responsible and relational ways

Alaska Native Political Leadership and Higher Education Michael Jennings, 2004-06-03 Through an in depth study of Alaskan indigenous communities Jennings explores the relationship between land and education He reveals how Euro American institutions attempt to redefine indigenous understandings of land and spirituality to make them conform to those in the dominant society The author proposes educational agendas that are components of native sovereignty with their distinctive spiritual intellectual and material relationships to land This book is valuable for educational policymakers and instructors in education anthropology and Native American studies Faculty Learning Communities

Kristin N. Rainville, Cynthia G. Desrochers, David G. Title, 2024-03-12 This book explores Faculty Learning Communities FLCs as impactful professional learning for higher education faculty focusing on diversity equity and belonging It covers frameworks for antiracist and social justice oriented teaching their impact on teaching practices and student learning and potential for institutional change

From Treaty Peoples to Treaty Nation Greg Poelzer, Ken S. Coates, 2015-07-28
Canada is a country founded on relationships and agreements between Indigenous peoples and newcomers Although recent court cases have upheld Aboriginal title rights the cooperative spirit of the treaties is being lost as Canadians engage in endless arguments about First Nations issues Each new court decision adds fuel to the debate raging between those who want to see an end to special Aboriginal rights and those who demand a return to Aboriginal sovereignty Greg Poelzer and Ken Coates breathe new life into these debates by looking at approaches that have failed and succeeded in the past and offering all Canadians from policy makers to concerned citizens realistic steps forward Rather than getting bogged down in debates on Aboriginal rights they highlight Aboriginal success stories and redirect the conversation to a place of common ground Upholding equality of economic opportunity as a guiding principle they argue that the road ahead is clear if all Canadians take up their responsibilities as treaty peoples Canada will become a leader among treaty nations

Restoring Lands - Coordinating Science, Politics and Action Herman Karl, Lynn Scarlett, Juan Carlos Vargas-Moreno, Michael Flaxman, 2012-02-03
Environmental issues vast and varied in their details unfold at the confluence of people and place They present complexities in their biophysical details their scope and scale and the dynamic character of human action and natural systems Addressing environmental issues often invokes tensions among battling interests and competing priorities Air and water pollution the effects of climate change ecosystem transformations these and other environmental issues involve scientific social economic and institutional challenges This book analyzes why tackling many of these problems is so difficult and why sustainability involves more than adoption of greener cleaner technologies Sustainability as discussed in this book involves knowledge flows and collaborative decision processes that integrate scientific and technological methods and tools political and governance structures and regimes and social and community values The authors synthesize a holistic and adaptive approach to rethinking the framework for restoring healthy ecosystems that are the foundation for thriving communities and dynamic economies This approach is that of collective action Through their research and practical experiences the authors have learned that much wisdom resides among diverse people in diverse communities New collaborative decision making institutions must reflect that diversity and tap into its wisdom while also strengthening linkages among scientists and decision makers From the pre publication reviews Finally we have a book that explains how science is irrelevant without people It s people who decide when and how to use science not scientists This book gives us a roadmap for how to really solve complex problems It involves hard work and creating new relationships between scientists
