Perspectives on Activity Theory Yrjö Engeström, Reijo Miettinen, Raija-Leena Punamäki-Gitai, 1999-01-13 Activity theory is an interdisciplinary approach to human sciences that originates in the cultural historical psychology school initiated by Vygotsky Leont'ev and Luria It takes the object oriented artifact mediated collective activity system as its unit of analysis thus bridging the gulf between the individual subject and the societal structure This 1999 volume includes 26 chapters on activity theory by authors from ten countries In Part I of the book central theoretical issues are discussed from different points of view Some topics addressed in this part are epistemology methodology and the relationship between biological and cultural factors Part II is devoted to the acquisition and development of language This part includes a chapter that analyzes writing activity in Japanese classrooms and a case study of literacy skills of a man with cerebral palsy Part III contains chapters on play learning and education and Part IV addresses the meaning of technology and the development of work activities The final part covers issues of therapy and addiction

Activity Letorsky, 1990-01-01 Philosophical Thought in Russia in the Second Half of the Twentieth Century Vladislav Lektorsky, Marina F. Bykova, 2019-01-10 Philosophical Thought in Russia in the Second Half of the 20th Century is the first book of its kind that offers a systematic overview of an often misrepresented period in Russia's philosophy Focusing on philosophical ideas produced during the late 1950s early 1990s it reconstructs the development of genuine philosophical thought in the Soviet period and introduces those non dogmatic Russian thinkers who saw in philosophy a means of reforming social and intellectual life Covering such areas of philosophical inquiry as philosophy of science philosophical anthropology the history of philosophy activity approach as well as communication and dialogue studies the volume presents and thoroughly discusses central topics and concepts developed by Soviet thinkers in that particular fields Written by a team of internationally recognized scholars from Russia and abroad it examines the work of well known Soviet philosophers such as Mikhail Bakhtin Evald Ilyenkov and Merab Mamardashvili as well as those important figures such as Vladimir Bibler Alexander Zinoviev Yury Lotman Georgy

Shchedrovitsky Genrich Batishchev Sergey Rubinstein and others who have often been overlooked By introducing and examining original philosophical ideas that evolved in the Soviet period the book confirms that not all Soviet philosophy was dogmatic and tied to orthodox Marxism and the ideology of Marxism Leninism It shows Russian philosophical development of the Soviet period in a new light as a philosophy defined by a genuine discourse of exploration and intellectual progress rather than stagnation and dogmatism In addition to providing the historical and cultural background that explains the development of the 20th century Russian philosophy the book also puts the discussed ideas and theories in the context of contemporary philosophical discussions showing their relevance to nowadays debates in Western philosophy With short biographies of key thinkers an extensive current bibliography and a detailed chronology of Soviet philosophy this research resource provides a new understanding of the Soviet period and its intellectual legacy 100 years after the Russian Revolution Activity Theory and Collaborative Intervention in Education Katsuhiko Yamazumi, 2021-02-22 By applying cultural historical activity theory and expansive learning theory to educational research this volume illuminates new forms of educational activities as collaborative interventions in schools and communities where learners and practitioners generate expansive learning so that they can collectively transform their activities and expand their agency for themselves It covers four cases of activity theoretical formative intervention studies conducted in Japan which are related to fostering children s expansive learning in classroom lessons teachers as collaborative change agents in redesigning schools expanding the school activity from below and emerging knotworking agency in community based disaster prevention learning This book employs activity theory as a general theoretical framework of human learning and development to connect focal data from empirical and interventional studies on real human learning in specific educational settings in Japan In this way the book illustrates how the general theoretical framework could be used to understand a specific socio cultural milieu that is the Japanese context It also shows the universal relevance of the Japanese context of educational activity on broader international research analyzing concrete empirical data from specific settings in Japan In conclusion this book creates new understanding and develops a cohesive framework of the agentic and hybrid nature of educational activities as collaborative interventions in the expansion of learning Proceedings of The 23rd European Conference on Research Methods in Business and Management Sandra Moffett, The European Conference on Research Methodology in Business and Management ECRM is a longstanding academic conference held annually for 24 years dedicated to advancing the understanding and application of research methodologies in the fields of business and management The conference provides a forum for scholars researchers and practitioners to share insights explore new approaches and discuss the challenges and innovations in research methods ECRM is known for its rigorous peer reviewed proceedings ensuring that the research presented meets high academic standards By covering a wide range of methodological issues and innovations the conference plays a crucial role in shaping the future of research in business and management promoting the development of robust and impactful research practices
