

"The right of privacy" ... is broad enough to encompass a woman's decision whether or not to terminate her pregnancy. The detriment that the State would impose upon the pregnant woman by denying this choice altogether is apparent. State-imposed abortion harm medically diagnosable even in early pregnancy may be involved. ...
Psychological harm may be imminent. ...
There is also the distress, for all concerned, associated with the unwanted child, and there is the problem of bringing a child into a family already unable, psychologically and otherwise, to care for it. ... All these are factors the woman and her responsible physician necessarily must take into consideration."
