Doctors In Conflict:

Doctors in Conflict Marjorie Harte, 1981-01-01      Doctors in Conflict Drusilla Douglas, 1999      Doctors in Conflict Sonia Deane,      Conflicts of Interest on Blue Shield Boards of Directors United States. Congress. House. Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce. Subcommittee on Oversight and Investigations, 1978      Physicians at War Fritz Allhoff, 2008-03-22 This paper offers a brief examination of ethical health issues arising from military operations and outlines which if any of these ethical health issues apply to current Australian Defence Force ADF military operations The transparency of military operations provided through real time global media reporting and the Internet has raised public awareness of incidents that can be viewed broadly as ethical issues or dilemmas While many of these issues are not new it is the changing context of post cold war military operations and scale and demand of humanitarian operations that places new requirements on how the ADF best addresses these potential issues before they become critical incidents In identifying potential ethical issues arising from military health operations it is recognized that military health personnel operate within a command and control organizational structure and associated culture It is also recognized that the complexity of the issues and the environment within which military health personnel are expected to operate will raise ethical health issues not likely to be encountered to the same degree by those health practitioners operating in the average suburban practice or hospital except when health personnel are confronted with large scale emergencies such as those encountered with recent terrorist attacks and massacres      Drugs and Child Maltreatment David A. Joyce, Peter M. Winterton, 2018-10-24 This book combines experience in child protection with expertise in clinical pharmacology and forensic toxicology to set out a broad contemporary understanding of child maltreatment with drugs It explores presentations that range through ante natal exposure factitious illness deliberate poisoning drug accidents while in the care of drug affected adults misuse of therapeutic drugs and the drug related death of a child It describes how to recognise where deliberate drug exposure or perversion of proper therapeutics is being used to harm a child how to use laboratory testing to confirm a diagnosis how to combine medical and social care with the need to gather legal evidence and how to deploy social medical and legal resources for child protection The roles of the forensic toxicologist and contemporary forensic laboratory methods in resolving cryptic presentations are discussed in each context There is guidance on effective communication about drugs within the child protection team and on writing reports for legal purposes on the way to returning the child to safety The book also explores the particular difficulties that arise in reconciling parents rights and cultural beliefs with the obligation to document a child s drug exposure and in dealing with parents and carers who themselves may be drug impaired      Modern Death Haider Warraich, 2017-02-07 Elegant and poignant Warraich succeeds in humanizing a complex topic and gives us remarkable insights about the changing nature of modern death Siddhartha Mukherjee New York Times bestselling author of The Emperor of All Maladies There is no more universal truth in life than death but the mechanics and understanding of that experience will differ greatly in today's modern age Dr Haider Warraich is a brilliant new voice in the conversation about death and dying started by Dr Sherwin Nuland and Atul Gawande Dr Warraich takes a broader look at how we die today from the cellular level up to the very definition of death itself The most basic aspects of dying the whys wheres whens and hows are almost nothing like what they were mere decades ago Beyond its ecology epidemiology and economics the very ethos of death has changed Modern Death will explore the rituals and language of dying that have developed in the last century and how modern technology has not only changed the hows whens and wheres of death but the what of death Delving into the vast body of research on the evolving nature of death Modern Death will provide readers with an enriched understanding of how death differs from the past what our ancestors got right and how trends and events have transformed this most final of human experiences Warraich's story is filled with compassionate accounts of the different ways he has witnessed people meet death in the modern age Scientific American A much needed exploration offering clear eyed analysis of what it means to die in America today and how to focus one's own life toward a saner and gentler denouement Danielle Ofri MD PhD author of What Patients Say What Doctors Hear The Doctor's Dilemma Bernard Shaw,1920 School Doctors in Germany William Harbutt Dawson,1908 Abstracts of Doctors' Dissertations Ohio State University. Graduate School,1930
