Who We Are Now Michelle Fishburne, 2023-01-19 Michelle Fishburne did the unthinkable during the early days of the COVID 19 pandemic she motor homed 12 000 miles all over the United States and sat down with hundreds of people face to face People shared what their lives were like what made them struggle and what surprised them

The personal histories in this book show a diversity of American lives from the young college student who finds unexpected fame on TikTok to a special education teacher sharing the challenges of remote learning Everyone s story is different Some like Fishburne lost their jobs Others lost family friends and even their own health and well being And yet among the difficulties many found something that had eluded them before the pandemic These testimonies offer a glimpse into what people across America lost and found during the pandemic s critical first year Fishburne lets us hear people s stories as if we were there in real time at the beginning of COVID 19 when employment was uncertain schools were online and American life more unpredictable than ever before

Reclaiming Popular Documentary Christie Milliken,Steve F. Anderson,2021-07-06 The documentary has achieved rising popularity over the past two decades thanks to streaming services like Netflix and Hulu Despite this documentary studies still tends to favor works that appeal primarily to specialists and scholars Reclaiming Popular Documentary reverses this long standing tendency by showing that documentaries can be and are made for mainstream or commercial audiences Editors Christie Milliken and Steve Anderson who consider popular documentary to be a subfield of documentary studies embrace an expanded definition of popular to acknowledge the many evolving forms of documentary such as branded entertainment fictional hybrids and works with audience participation Together these essays address emerging documentary forms including web docs virtual reality immersive journalism viral media interactive docs and video on demand and offer the critical tools viewers need to analyze contemporary documentaries and consider how they are persuaded by and represented in documentary media By combining perspectives of scholars and makers Reclaiming Popular Documentary brings new understandings and international perspectives to familiar texts using critical models that will engage media scholars and fans alike
