Routledge Handbook of Vegan Studies Laura Wright, 2021-03-30 This wide ranging volume explores the tension between the dietary practice of veganism and the manifestation construction and representation of a vegan identity in today s society Emerging in the early 21st century vegan studies is distinct from more familiar conceptions of animal studies an umbrella term for a three pronged field that gained prominence in the late 1990s and early 2000s consisting of critical animal studies human animal studies and posthumanism While veganism is a consideration of these modes of inquiry it is a decidedly different entity an ethical delineator that for many scholars marks a complicated boundary between theoretical pursuit and lived experience The Routledge Handbook of Vegan Studies is the must have reference for the important topics problems and key debates in the subject area and is the first of its kind Comprising over 30 chapters by a team of international contributors this handbook is divided into five parts History of vegan studies Vegan studies in the disciplines Theoretical intersections Contemporary media entanglements Veganism around the world These sections contextualize veganism beyond its status as a dietary choice situating veganism within broader social ethical legal theoretical and artistic discourses This book will be essential reading for students and researchers of vegan studies animal studies and environmental ethics Consuming

Identity Ashli Quesinberry Stokes, Wendy Atkins-Sayre, 2016-11-02 Southerners love to talk food quickly revealing likes and dislikes regional preferences and their own delicious stories Because the topic often crosses lines of race class gender and region food supplies a common fuel to launch discussion Consuming Identity sifts through the self definitions allegiances and bonds made possible and strengthened through the theme of southern foodways The book focuses on the role food plays in building identities accounting for the messages food sends about who we are how we see ourselves and how we see others While many volumes examine southern food this one is the first to focus on food s rhetorical qualities and the effect that it can have on culture The volume examines southern food stories that speak to the identity of the region explain how food helps to build identities and explore how it enables cultural exchange Food acts rhetorically with what we choose to eat and serve sending distinct messages It also serves a vital identity building function factoring heavily into our memories narratives and understanding of who we are Finally because food and the tales surrounding it are so important to southerners the rhetoric of food offers a significant and meaningful way to open up dialogue in the region By sharing and celebrating both foodways and the food itself southerners are able to revel in shared histories and traditions In this way individuals find a common language despite the divisions of race and class that continue to plague the South The rich subject of southern fare serves up a significant starting point for understanding the powerful rhetorical potential of all food ImagiNation Ed Conroy,2025-11-18 A nostalgic look back at fifty years of children s television from the beloved Polka Dot Door Mr Dressup Today s Special to the bizarre Kiddo the Clown Coming Up Rosie Maniac Mansion ImagiNation took me down memory lane sharing behind the scenes stories about the shows that coloured my world when I was a kid Erica Ehm former MuchMusic VJ From the time CBC sputtered onto screens in 1952 children s television has been at the centre of Canada s cultural output The country s first television host was an ornery puppet named Chichimus who set the stage for future Toronto based puppeteers producers directors and actors to make children s television their own With the studios of CBC TVOntario CFTO and eventually YTV all located in Toronto the city s televisual output was staggering and fed by the imagination and hard work of the local talent Featuring over one hundred children s programs broadcast between 1950 and 2000 ImagiNation is a memory filled trip for anyone who spent their weekdays after school or Saturday mornings staring at the idiot box The story of each Toronto produced series is covered from inception through production to broadcast along with the tales of local stations and the people who made it all happen Fans of The Friendly Giant Degraffi Junior High Readalong YTV Uncle Bobby Aunt Agnes and much more will find their favourites plus shows they ve forgotten they loved or loathed Whether you adored Pearl Van Oyster Hammy Hamster the Fraggles or the Grogs ImagiNation is a trip you won t want to miss Handbook of Latin American Studies ,1977 Contains records describing books book chapters articles and conference papers published in the field of Latin American studies Coverage includes relevant books as well as over 800 social science and 550 humanities journals and volumes of conference proceedings Most records include abstracts with evaluations Columbia University Bulletin Columbia University,1959 International Index to Film Periodicals ,1984 The World Almanac and Book of Facts, 2005 ,2005 The World Almanac is the most useful reference book known to modern man Internet The World Almanac and Book of Facts 2005 William A.
