The Faith, the Cross, the Gospel, and the Worship of God Arvil Jones,2008-06 This book is different from most other books of the same genre It simply takes another approach at expounding upon these great Biblical themes The author has taken the letters of each theme and has built a chapter or chapters upon each letter The author simply believes that there is something else to be said than what has been said so far about The Christian Faith the faith which was once delivered unto the saints May God bless each reader who reads these few pages Dr Jones was born in the small Southeastern Kentucky community of Girdler He is the youngest of fourteen children seven boys and seven girls He and his wife Carolyn now reside in Hamilton OH Dr Jones has earned a Masters degree in Theology and a Doctorate in Religion having held five pastorates in over thirty years of ministry This present work is his fourth book Cross Veneration in the Medieval Islamic World Charles Tieszen,2016-02-28 One of the most common religious practices among medieval Eastern Christian communities was their devotion to venerating crosses and crucifixes Yet many of these communities existed in predominantly Islamic contexts where the practice was subject to much criticism and often resulted in accusations of idolatry How did Christians respond to these allegations Why did they advocate the preservation of a practice that was often met with confusion or even contempt To shed light onto these questions Charles Tieszen looks at every known apologetic or polemical text written between the eighth and fourteenth centuries to include a relevant discussion With sources taken from across the Mediterranean basin Egypt Syria and Palestine the result is the first in depth look at a key theological debate which lay at the heart of these communities religious identities By considering the perspectives of both Muslim and Christian authors Cross Veneration in the Medieval Islamic World also raises important questions concerning cross cultural debate and exchange and the development of Christianity and Islam in the medieval period This is an important book that will shine much needed light onto Christian Muslim relations the nature of inter faith debates and the wider issues facing the communities living across the Middle East during the medieval period
