At The Seaside Get Crafty:

At the Seaside Vivienne Bolton,1998     The Sea-Craft of Prehistory Paul Johnstone,2013-11-12 The nautical dimension of prehistory has not so far received the attention it deserves It is also too often assumed that early man was land bound yet this is demonstrably not the case Recent research has shown that man travelled and tracked over greater distances and at a much earlier date than has previously been thought possible Some of these facts can be explained only by man s mastery of water transport from earliest times This book by an acknowledged expert on prehistoric sea craft examines these problems looking at the new archaeological information in the light of the author s nautical knowledge The result is a detailed account of man s use of inland and ocean going craft from earliest times until the dawn of recorded history All forms of evidence are critically assessed from the vessels of Ancient Egypt to the Chinese junk to present of comprehensive picture of the vessels men have built through the ages and of the variety of ways in which they have been used     Craft Activism Joan Tapper,2011 An inspiring celebration of a growing movement Crafters working to change the world and build community share their experiences tips and advice on living teaching and promoting a more meaningful DIY lifestyle     Sailing Craft Edwin J. Schoettle,1928     Rudder ,1929     The sea lions. Afloat and ashore. The water witch James Fenimore Cooper,1893     Disasters at Sea Dag Pike,2013-11-01 Dag Pike draws on his experience as merchant navy captain fast boat navigator and boat safety tester for RNLI lifeboats to focus on a wide range of disasters at sea He compiles a wide range of accounts of yachts motorboats and commercial vessels running into difficulty as a result of poor navigation fog miscalculation human error weather conditions etc and analyses in a readable and entertaining fashion what caused the disaster what went wrong how it was dealt with and the lessons learned from it Examples range from the Fastnet disaster powerboat races boats run down in the Channel to trawlers pulled under by submarines ferry accidents and tanker and cargo ship disasters The incidents include grounding collision fire sinking ice and storms and each chapter has an example from the Marine Accident Investigation Bureau who monitor incidents at sea This book is a fascinating read for all who go afloat either for business or pleasure and for anyone interested in just why disasters happen at sea     Rifle-craft Charles Singer Landis,1923     Camera Craft ,1925     The Rudder Thomas Fleming Day,1929     The Gentle Craft Thomas Deloney,1903     The Motor Boat ,1909     Camp Craft, Modern Practice and Equipment. describe the reaction of the Viennese public and deal with comments made by contemporary musicians Antonio Salieri the Viennese Court s Kappelmeister was highly supportive Count Carl von Zinzendorf a shrewd observer of the local operatic scene was less than enthusiastic The music and the decorations are pretty he wrote the rest an unbelievable farce He did however mention that the crowds were huge The Magic Flute has always been popular but does that make it a popular opera The dramatic vehicle assembled by Mozart is hardly a farce The Queen of the Night is a witch and Sarastro a Mason this much is clear even to the uninitiated In The Magic Flute they are at odds over Pamina s abduction by Sarastro a theme thoroughly explored in Greek legends of Persephone Held captive in the realm of the dead to which the masonic Temple figuratively corresponds Persephone stands for the magic powers of generation and renewal that Hades holds hostage in his subterranean kingdom In the revolutionary climate of 18th century Europe these powers were again needed for a reseeded of the hidden order But the hermetic Temple where the King and Queen reign is not that easily reconstructed Genius is not always enough where magic is the intended practice Journal of the Royal Society of Arts ,1883 The United Service Magazine ,1904 Harper's Round Table ,1897
