Atlantic Fishes of Canada William Beverley Scott, Mildred Grace Scott, Canada. Department of Fisheries and Oceans, 1988
Atlantic Fishes of Canada is intended as a replacement volume for Fishes of the Atlantic Coast of Canada which was published in 1966 as Bulletin 155 of the Fisheries Research Board of Canada The major portion of the present book is concerned with the biology distribution and or economics of the fishes occurring off our Atlantic coast Most accounts are well documented necessitating an extensive reference list which we hope will prove useful in itself A checklist and keys are also presented for students or anyone concerned with the kinds and identification of fishes making up the fauna of the region Many changes have occurred since 1966 not only in the state of our knowledge of the fauna and its biology but also in the management of the resource Changes in the management are well documented in the section Atlantic Coast Fisheries and Fisheries Research in the Last 25 Years

Guide to the Marine Sport Fishes of Atlantic Canada and New England Brian W. Coad, Canadian Museum of Nature, 1992 Thank You For Smoking meets House of Cards in this fast paced sharp satire about the business world After aspiring novelist Francis Scanlon is expelled from a prestigious graduate creative writing program he is forced to become a spin doctor at the Prock Chocolate Corporation while he awaits the publication of his masterpiece But Francis s expectations of easy money and literary glory are thwarted by a paranoid boss determined to run him out of the company a charlatan writing coach a snarky reporter a sanctimonious public health crusader more Goebbels than Gandhi an oily U S Senator with presidential aspirations and a radical Muslim cleric with absolutely no sense of humor As the story unfolds in San Francisco Washington New York Krakow Mumbai Jakarta and a series of lush equatorial corporate jet refueling stations Francis is swept up by market forces and transformed from pretentious literary cliché to reluctant executive to master practitioner of the black art of corporate power politics The story ends up rather unexpectedly as a surprisingly sweet romantic comedy as well A unique exploration of the way business politics career trajectories and interpersonal relations intermingle Corporate America is a smart literate comedy that deftly blends bone dry satire high ideals and bad taste without ever showing its seams
