No Bottom Mike Newell,2008 Cultural Writing NO BOTTOM informally tracks the life and letters of American icon and world revered author Barry Lopez whose literature of hope reminds readers the way we take care of ourselves is by taking care of each other This nonfiction book is a primer for newcomers to Lopez s work a haven for aficionados and a baedeker for academicians It includes an original interview and a provocative inquiry into Barry Lopez s six short story books These portals provide grounding for new arrivals to Lopez s insatiable Trickster wit and yield reader friendly end notes for academicians This book shows once again why many of us think of Barry Lopez as a national treasure Lewis Hyde author of The Gift and Trickster Makes This World      Outside Barry Lopez,2014-02-24 The six stories in Outside show Barry Lopez s majestic talent as a fiction writer Lopez writes in spare prose but his narratives resonate with an uncanny power With a reverence for our exterior and interior landscapes these stories offer profound insight into the relationships between humans and animals creativity and beauty and ultimately life and death In Desert Notes the narrator says All my life I have wanted to trick blood from a rock The story proceeds to instruct the visitor on how to experience the desert but continues like no ordinary field guide At stake here is what is at the furthest edge of our grasp You will think you have hold of the idea when you have only the hold of its clothing Rattlesnakes the shell of a beetle a few twigs silence out of these spare elements Lopez conjures a realm that shimmers with an elusive but palpable presence The Search for the Heron and Within Birds Hearing present encounters with animals that are imbued with spiritual and often inexplicable exchanges In solitary almost visionary episodes the narrators pass into permeable realms of nature recalling a time when humans and animals spoke the same language Lopez's gift is to imagine a reality where humans can be so embedded in the natural world that the boundaries between inner and outer fall away. Again and again, whether describing a Navajo rug possessing the essence of its maker or a boy who can change places with his half-coyote dog named Leaves or a teacher whose presence brings into question the meaning of friendship, Lopez portrays elemental and sacred places. His prose transcends its simplicity to enter spaces of wonder and mystery. As James Perrin Warren says in his compelling introduction, Lopez's narrators bear witness to extraordinary patterns and purposes. The storyteller is vital to the community and to a healthy landscape, but the vital relationship is also reciprocal. We participate along with Lopez in the long history of storytelling. We become part of the atmosphere in which wisdom shows itself. Barry Moser's eleven otherworldly, densely layered engravings accompany the text. Each provides a meditative experience that parallels Lopez's complex sense of our relationship to nature. An afterword by Lopez closes this dramatically original collaboration. Outside brings together Barry Lopez, best known for his National Book Award-winning Arctic Dreams, Barry Moser, the publisher of Pennyroyal Press whose reputation as a book artist, printmaker, designer, and artist is legendary, and the widely published James Perrin Warren, a professor of English at Washington and Lee University, to offer an abundance of riches for readers and lovers of fine books.

Other Country James Perrin Warren, 2015-12-03

The award-winning American environmental writer Barry Lopez has traveled extensively in remote and populated parts of the world. Lopez's fiction and nonfiction focus on the relationship between the physical landscape and human culture, posing abiding questions about ethics, intimacy, and place. Other Country presents a full-scale treatment of Lopez's work. James Perrin Warren examines the relationship between Lopez's writing and the work of several contemporary artists, composers, and musicians whose works range from landscape photography, painting, and graphic arts to earth art, ceramics, and avant-garde music. The author demonstrates Lopez's role in creating this community of artists who have led cultural change and shows that Lopez's writing and his engagement with the natural world creates an "other country" by redefining boundaries, rediscovering a place, and renewing our perceptions of landscapes. Warren's critique examines manuscripts and typescripts from the 1960s to the present, interviews with Lopez conducted from 2008 to 2013, and interviews with artists. Part 1 focuses on the relationship between Lopez's storytelling, which he calls a conversation with the land, and Robert Adams's landscape photography. For both Lopez and Adams, a worthy artistic expression serves the cultural memory of a community, reminding us how to behave properly toward other people and the land. Part 2 looks at the collaborative friendship of Lopez and visual artist Alan Magee, tracking the development of Lopez's short stories through a consideration of Magee's career. Part 3 moves farther afield, discussing Lopez's relationship to Richard Long's earth art, Richard Rowland's ceramics, and John Luther Adams's soundscapes. Other Country reveals the dynamic relationships between Lopez, considered by many the most important environmental writer working in America, and the artistic community who seek to explore the spiritual and ethical dimensions of an honorable and attentive relationship to the land, and thus offer profound
