Daily Meds Melody Petersen,2010-07-01 In the last thirty years the big pharmaceutical companies have transformed themselves into marketing machines selling dangerous medicines as if they were Coca Cola or Cadillacs They pitch drugs with video games and soft cuddly toys for children promote them in churches and subways at NASCAR races and state fairs They ve become experts at promoting fear of disease just so they can sell us hope No question drugs can save lives But the relentless marketing that has enriched corporate executives and sent stock prices soaring has come with a dark side Prescription pills taken as directed by physicians are estimated to kill one American every five minutes And that figure doesn t reflect the damage done as the overmedicated take to the roads Our Daily Meds connects the dots for the first time to show how corporate salesmanship has triumphed over science inside the biggest pharmaceutical companies and in turn how this promotion driven industry has taken over the practice of medicine and is changing American life It is an ageless story of the battle between good and evil with potentially life changing consequences for everyone not just the 65 percent of Americans who unscrew a prescription cap every day An industry with the promise to help so many is now leaving a legacy of needless harm The Publishers Weekly ,2005 The Best of Guideposts GUIDEPOSTS,2005 Renovating Rhetoric in

Christian Tradition Elizabeth Vander Lei,Thomas Amorose,Beth Daniell,Anne Ruggles Gere,2014-02-28 Throughout history determined individuals have appropriated and reconstructed rhetorical and religious resources to create effective arguments In the process they have remade both themselves and their communities This edited volume offers notable examples of these reconstructions ranging from the formation of Christianity to questions about the relationship of religious and academic ways of knowing The initial chapters explore historic challenges to Christian doctrines and gender roles Contributors examine Mormon women s campaigns for the recognition of their sect women s suffrage and the statehood of Utah the Seventh day Adventist challenge to the mainstream designation of Sunday as the Sabbath a female minister who confronted the gendered
