questions and many others would pop up in the next few weeks months and years I learned real quick what depression was and how it would grip me almost any time of the day This is my story I am proud of myself because now I can share it with you It is said the first sign of recovery is when you can talk about it I have faced a lot of monsters in the past ten years There is a story of a young man named Shea He lived in a small town called Shady Vale One day a wizard named Allanon came to see him Allanon told Shea that he was chosen to defeat the dark lord who was destroying the world Shea was to find the Sword of Shinara and go to mount doom and defeat the dark lord Well on the way he meets the elves and dwarfs He was attacked by the dark lord s underlings One day he finally reached Mount Doom with the sword of Shinara There he came face to face with the evil dark lord Shea to his amazement faced the evil one The sword reflected his doubts fears and hopelessness The Sword of Shinara You see the monster that Shea faced was himself This story consoled me at times When I was asked to do something I would have no on my lips Then I would ask myself what monster are you fighting Will you give up and give in My grandmother told me I was a hard headed person I ll buy that Gospel Herald ,1928 The Path of Holiness, a First Book of Prayers ... Thomas Thellusson Carter,1871 The Book of Common Prayer Church of England,1891 Wiseman Review ,1919 The Dublin Review Nicholas Patrick Wiseman,1919
