Public Scholarship in Literary Studies Rachel Arteaga,2021-05-21 Public Scholarship in Literary Studies demonstrates that literary criticism has the potential not only to explain but to actively change our terms of engagement with current realities Rachel Arteaga and Rosemary Johnsen bring together accomplished public scholars who make significant contributions to literary scholarship teaching and the public good The volume begins with essays by scholars who write regularly for large public audiences in primarily digital venues then moves to accounts of research based teaching and engagement in public contexts and finally turns to important new models for cross institutional partnerships and campus community engagement Grounded in scholarship and written in an accessible style Public Scholarship in Literary Studies will appeal to scholars in and outside the academy students and those interested in the public humanities There are books of literary criticism that attempt to reach crossover audiences but none that take this particular public humanities focused on literary criticism perspective Kathryn Temple Georgetown University Contributions by Rachel Arteaga Christine Chaney Jim Cocola Daniel Coleman Christopher Douglas Gary Handwerk Cynthia L Haven Rosemary Erickson Johnsen Anu Taranath Carmaletta M Williams and Lorraine York The Community Room in the Platoon School Elizabeth M. Sell,2011 Further developing the line of argument put forward in his Literature as Communication 2000 and Mediating Criticism 2001 Roger D Sell now suggests that when so called literary texts stand the test of time and appeal to a large and heterogeneous circle of admirers this is because they are genuinely dialogical in spirit Their writers rather than telling other people what to do or think or feel invite them to compare notes and about topics which take on different nuances as seen from different points of view So while such texts obviously reflect the taste and values of their widely various provenances they also channel a certain respect for the human other to whom they are addressed So much so that they win a reciprocal respect from members of their audience In Sell s new book this ethical interplay becomes the focus of a post postmodern critique which sees literary dialogicality as a possible catalyst to new non hegemonic kinds of globalization The argument is illustrated with major reassessments of Shakespeare Pope Wordsworth Dickens Churchill Orwell and Pinter and there are also studies of trauma literature for children and of ethically oriented
