Burke,Cary L. Cooper,2007-12-13 Organizations today are facing heightened challenges in their efforts to perform effectively These challenges are reflected in the failure of many long standing organizations and the shortened tenure of senior level executives There is increasing agreement that the unique competitive advantage organizations have today lies in their people their human resource management practices and their cultures All other elements of production can be readily obtained bought or copied We are now in the era of human capital to be successful organizations need to unleash the talents of their people Fortunately we now have considerable understanding of what high performing organizations look like However a large gap still exists between what we know and what managers actually do With contributions from a team of leading academics and practitioners Building More Effective Organizations provides an extensive survey of human resource management and the organizational practices associated with the high performance of individuals Value-driven IT Management Iain Aitken,2003 Huge sums of money are often wasted by companies on poorly aligned poorly justified and managed IT projects based on wishful thinking cost and benefit assumptions and even successful projects rarely seem to realize the benefits promised Validity and Limitations of Fisher and Ury's best practise Marcel Strangmueller,2018-11-15 Essay from the year 2018 in the subject Sociology Basics and General grade 61 Queen Margaret University language English abstract This essay explores the importance of the subject of Negotiation and explains the two main approaches principled and positional Negotiation outlined by Ury and Fisher in the book Getting to Yes
