Disability A Diversity Model Approach In Human Service Practice:

Disability Romel W. Mackelprang, Richard O. Salsgiver, Ryan C. Parrey, Ryan Parrey, 2021-12-15 Disability Fourth Edition is an indispensable tool for human services students in understanding disability from an empowerment perspective. Authors Mackelprang, Salsgiver, and Parrey establish the historical and societal context in which those living with disabilities are marginalized while offering a social ecological model and its three biosocial, psychosocial, and social-cultural dimensions that students and instructors can employ. Readers will also be introduced to universal diversity theory which draws from feminist, race, disability, and queer theories for an approach that is applicable across all diverse groups. Written from a North American perspective, the book also addresses disability laws, policies, and practices globally.

Disability Romel W. Mackelprang, Richard O. Salsgiver, 2016 Disability is a tool for human service practitioners to use in understanding disability from an empowerment social model perspective. The text addresses policy, theory, description, and practice from a strengths-based viewpoint, stressing disability as a difference rather than as dysfunction. The book establishes the historical and societal context in which those with disabilities are marginalized, discusses the major groupings of disabilities, and offers a model for assessment and practice.

Disability Professor of Social Work and the Director of the Center for Disability Studies and Universal Access, Romel W. Mackelprang, Richard O. Salsgiver, 2009-06-01 Disability A Diversity Model Approach in Human Service Practice 2e is a must-read for all human service practitioners who serve clients with disabilities. This sensitive and detailed book highlights a strengths-based social model that emphasizes diversity, identity, and empowerment. Mackelprang and Salsgiver use clinical practice and social advocacy to provide practical solutions to combat stereotypes.

Disability Romel W. Mackelprang, Richard O. Salsgiver, Ryan Parrey, 2022 Disability is an indispensable tool for human service practitioners in understanding disability from an empowerment perspective. The authors address policy, theory, description, and practice, stressing the difference of disability rather than the dysfunction of disability. The text is illustrated with in-depth personal narratives by those living with disability and thought-provoking sidebars that ask readers to consider the implications of their own reactions to disability. Mackelprang and Salsgiver establish the historical and societal context in which those with disabilities are marginalized, discuss the major groupings of disabilities, and finally offer a model for assessment and practice that human service practitioners can adopt. The book develops a contemporary perspective in which people with disabilities are considered valuable and contributing members of society. Using this book, students will find not only a prescription for professional assessment and practice but also the necessary understanding of common issues those with disabilities face, the social contexts in which they live, and the tools to work with people with disabilities as equals and partners.

Disability as Diversity Erin E. Andrews, 2020 Disability As Diversity comprehensively addresses disability as diversity and provides a guide for developing cultural competence. The text goes beyond disability models and opens a discourse on concepts such as disability identity, development, and culture, and culturally appropriate language assessment.
