Christian Existence Today:

Christian Existence Today Stanley Hauerwas, 2001 Christian ethicist Stanley Hauerwas explores the church's unique nature, message, and ministry in the world. Christianity, Politics, and the Predicament of Evil Bradley B. Burroughs, 2019-06-04 Christianity, Politics, and the Predicament of Evil overcomes a defining divide in contemporary Protestant political ethics created by two contrasting conceptions of politics. The first, exemplified in the work of Reinhold Niebuhr, construes politics as a matter of statecraft that utilizes the power of government to secure the greatest possible order and justice for society as a whole. The second, most prominently articulated by Stanley Hauerwas, maintains that politics concerns itself with the cultivation of virtue; consequently, it finds not the well-ordered state but the church to be the exemplar of politics. Not only illuminating the divide between politics as statecraft and politics as soulcraft, but also redeveloping the conceptual space between them, this book reconceives politics within a theological framework in which the eschatological City of God, rather than the well-ordered state or the faithful church, functions as the paradigm of political life. At the same time, it simultaneously recognizes that the existence of evil, which corrupts individual wills and social structures, inhibits human beings from building the City of God in this world. Analyzing, criticizing, and drawing resources from Niebuhr and Hauerwas, as well as looking beyond to Augustine, Martin Luther King Jr., and others, this book specifies the respective roles of soulcraft and statecraft in a political ethic capable of guiding Christians as they witness to God's eschatological intention to establish the City of God in a world currently mired in the predicament of evil.

Types of Ecclesiology David Emerton, 2024-11-12 Types of Ecclesiology introduces the study of the doctrine of the church. It illuminates the breadth of contemporary ecclesiological thought by articulating five approaches to ecclesiology: Avoiding denominational alignments, David Emerton charitably elucidates the logic and concerns driving each type. He argues that ecclesiology must account theologically for the unique nature of the church before considering its activities. We must ask what the church is before asking what the church does. Professors will find a valuable orienting text; students will grasp the stakes of contemporary debates; and scholars surveying ecumenical ecclesiology will discover an illuminating structural framework. Doing the work of the church requires discerning its essence, and this timely volume insightfully examines what is at the heart of the body of Christ.

Witness Is Presence Miika Tolonen, 2014-01-07 In a postsecular cultural situation, the conditions for understanding and communicating a Christian tradition have changed. None of the established religions can any longer claim monopoly in the marketplace of religions. A claim of this study is that a postsecular situation, characterized among other things by dwindling memberships in established churches as well as a new visibility of alternative religious expressions, opens up a need to reflect on alternative ways of understanding Christianity in its context. This study focuses on the question: how can a Christian tradition be communicated understandably in a postsecular context? In traditional terms, how can Christian witness be understood in our situation? It is to this need, according to this study, that the ecclesiology of Stanley Hauerwas provides a meaningful perspective This perspective becomes relevant because in a postsecular context a Christian church even a folk church cannot assume to be in a position of majority or power There is therefore a need to ask how to understand Christianity as a community of witness that is neither in power nor a majority The study suggests that embodiment of Christian convictions becomes a central factor in a meaningful postsecular notion of witness

The Gilson Lectures on Thomas Aquinas, 2008 Few men of modern times have influenced the study of the medieval past as profoundly as Professor Etienne Gilson By the encyclopaedic range of his writings teaching lectures and personal contacts by his sensitive vision of Christian culture present and past and by the brave new ventures on which he embarked he as few others is responsible for the strength and diversity of medieval studies in North America and Europe In recognition of his achievement and to continue his work the Pontifical Institute of Mediaeval Studies commissioned an annual lecture to develop areas of his interest and expertise Since 1979 there have been twenty four lectures given by senior medievalists Among the distinguished contributors to the series are fellows of the Institute past and present Leonard E Boyle Jocelyn Hillgarth Edouard Jeauneau James K McConica M Mich le Mulchahey Joseph Owens Walter H Principe James P Reilly Brian Stock Edward A Synan and James A Weispheipl as well as such eminent scholars from Canada Europe and the United States as Marcia Colish Giles Constable William J Courtenay Paul Dutton Mark D Jordan F Donald Logan Karl F Morrison John D North Francis Oakley Jaroslav Pelikan Otto Hermann Pesch Kenneth Schmitz and John F Wippel To mark the thirtieth anniversary of Gilson s death and seventy five years of scholarly publishing at the Institute we are reprinting the nine Gilson lectures devoted to Thomas Aquinas

The Ecclesiology of Stanley Hauerwas John B. Thomson, 2017-05-15 This book presents the theological work of Stanley Hauerwas as a distinctive kind of liberation theology John Thomson offers an original construal of this diffuse controversial yet highly significant modern theologian and ethicist Organising Hauerwas corpus in terms of the focal concept of liberation Thomson shows that it possesses a greater degree of coherence than its usual expression in ad hoc essays or sermons John Thomson locates Hauerwas in relation to a wide range of figures including the obvious choices Rauschenbusch Niebuhr Barth Yoder Lindbeck MacIntyre Milbank and O Donovan as well as less expected figures such as Gadamer Habermas Ricoeur Pannenberg Moltmann and Hardy Providing a structured and rigorous outline of Hauerwas intellectual roots this book presents an account of his theological project that demonstrates an underlying consistency in his attempt to create a political understanding of Christian freedom reaching beyond the limitations of the liberal post enlightenment tradition Hauerwas is passionate about the importance of moral discourse within the Christian community and its implications for the Church s politics When the Church is often perceived to be in decline and an irrelevance Hauerwas proffers a way of recovering identity confidence and mission particularly for ordinary Christians and ordinary churches

Thomson evaluates the comparative strengths and weaknesses of Hauerwas argument and indicates a number of vulnerabilities in his project    Town Journal ,1927    Christian Advocate and Journal and Zion's Herald ,1899    The Standard ,1915    Herald of Gospel Liberty Elias Smith,1922    Unitas ,1926    The Churchman ,1917    The China Christian Advocate ,1914    Students and the Future of Christian Missions Gordon Poteat,1928
