Christian Language And Its Mutations:

Christian Language and its Mutations David Martin,2022-02-16 Christian Language and its Mutations explores how Christian language alters in various social cultural historical and religious contexts Having delineated the core language of Christianity David Martin analyses how it mutates in different historical and social contexts notably peace and war the arts particularly painting and music the sacred space the city and the sacred text the liturgy education and the global situation of Christianity and contemporary secular society evangelicalism rational religion Pentecostalism and Base Communities Presenting a unique perspective to show how and why Christianity alters according to context this book will prove insightful and accessible to students clergy and general readers alike David Martin is Honorary Professor in the Department of Religious Studies Lancaster University and Emeritus Professor of Sociology at the London School of Economics UK He is the author of some two dozen books including many landmark titles in the sociology of religion Church Planting in the Secular West Stefan Paas,2016-11-03 An expert study of church planting in the most secular part of contemporary Europe In this book Stefan Paas offers thoughtful analysis of reasons and motives for missionary church planting in Europe and he explores successful and unsuccessful strategies in that post Christian secularized context Drawing in part on his own involvement with planting two churches in the Netherlands Paas explores confessional motives growth motives and innovation motives for church planting in Europe tracing them back to different traditions and reflecting on them from theological and empirical perspectives He presents examples from the European context and offers sound advice for improving existing missional practices Paas also draws out lessons for North America in a chapter coauthored with Darrell Guder and John Franke Finally Paas weaves together the various threads in the book with a theological defense of church planting Presenting new research as it does this critical missiological perspective will add significantly to a fuller understanding of church planting in our contemporary context Explorations in Twentieth-century Theology and

Philosophy Ann Loades,2023-04-11 Ann Loades has been instrumental in bringing forward for the attention of readers in later generations voices from the past notably highlighting the work of pioneering women such as Evelyn Underhill and Dorothy L Sayers as well as advancing the study of better known Anglican forebears C S Lewis and Austin Farrer always with her own distinctive concerns A key interpreter of the Anglican tradition and with a keen eye to ensure the full recognition of women these studies by Ann Loades are essential reading in Anglican feminist and twentieth century theology

Christianity in the Post Secular West Brett Knowles,John Stenhouse,2007-12-31 What is the future of Christianity in the twenty first century West Are Western societies growing more secular leaving cherished religious traditions behind Or have modernity s secularizing currents generated equally powerful desecularizing and resacralizing currents Should secularization theory the dominant paradigm in the social scientific study of religion for much of the twentieth century be thrown in the dustbin as some scholars have suggested Or does it remain useful even indispensable despite its limitations How are globalizing processes bringing diverse religious communities into increasingly close contact affecting Western Christian communities Such questions have attracted increasing attention from scholars in many disciplines during recent years and are at the heart of the essays in this volume

The Exiled Church Martyn Percy,2025-03-31 The Exiled Church explores how churches and faith communities are faring in a highly secular contemporary culture In many places traditional denominations are in steep decline church buildings are up for sale even fast growing new churches appear to be in a boom and bust trajectory and religion has effectively retreated from public life Yet it was in exile that Israel discovered a deeper and truer knowledge of God

Faith in Secular Life Martyn Percy,2026-01-01 Faith in Secular Life finds signals of transcendence in the most unlikely places Drawing on film novels popular culture music sport and secular buildings the Very Revd Prof Martyn Percy shows that the modern world teems with transcendent debris He tracks how quotidian Implicit Religion a term coined by Edward Bailey 1935 2015 reveals sacred currents lying just beneath the surface of secular life Following Bailey Percy holds that the lens of Implicit Religion is essentially bifocal in nature It allows simultaneous focus on elements in the foreground and aspects which lie at a greater distance Observing immediate ordinary human activity against the more distant horizon of secularisation Bailey s bifocal aperture brought the two together and placed them in a single framework for discussion However whilst Implicit Religion was fundamentally about identifying people s commitments Faith in Secular Life pursues the idea further to analyse specific areas of contemporary culture which would normally be seen as faithless Individuals may be unconscious that their actions can be understood as religious yet Percy maintains their participation remains saturated with sacredness and spirituality
