Christian Ministry:

Christian Ministry Gary Maske, 2015-09-11 Based on Romans 12:3-8 Christian Ministry describes a ministry of all believers also known as mutual ministry or one another ministry The author makes the case that this was the original church polity and that for centuries the churches have not operated even remotely like this The book is divided into three parts Christian ministry in the beginning Christian ministry ruined and Christian ministry revived In Part I Romans 12 and Ephesians 4 are featured Some of the topics covered in Part II include Nicolaitanism the ruination of the church by the church fathers and their legions the institution of the Sunday sermon and the false assumptions behind expository teaching the scholastic and gnostic seminary disciplines of hermeneutics and exegesis and the megachurch Part III begins with a chapter on the ministry of the Spirit which takes form in the ministries of the various brethren This ministry of the Spirit is thwarted by any and every order of service or liturgy Also there are chapters on the essential character of the Word as conducive to a mutual ministry of the saints the simple doctrine of Christian perfection the perfecting of the saints for the work of the ministry contrasted with the theological sophistry that has long surrounded the doctrine the true NT pastorate as distinguished from the one man pastorate that has been ascendant since the time of the church fathers and perpetuated in the Protestant Reformation and house churches as an alternative to the formalism in the churches The appendix includes an open letter to professional pastors and four chapters from The Christian Ministry According to the Apostles 1858 by Thomas Hughes Milner

20 Questions about Ministry James Cunneen, 2018-09-27 What do I do now Whether you're a lay minister pastor or missionary this is probably a question you've often asked yourself Along with the joy of helping people in Christian ministry comes the complexity of all the issues and situations that arise This book offers biblical perspectives and insights into twenty of the most common and puzzling questions that occur in Christian ministry today Questions like how can I help people with problems How can I be a great small group leader Can we actually hurt people by trying to minister to them How do I answer the tough questions non Christians and Christians ask Why doesn't God seem to help us more in our ministries What does success in ministry look like The discussions of these and other questions will hopefully encourage us to view every situation we face as an opportunity to help people connect with God

As the Father has sent me so I send you Those of us called to Christian ministry are commissioned and sent by Jesus just as he himself was called and sent by the Father Thus we naturally pattern our ministries after Christ's example But distinctively Christian service involves the Spirit as well just as Jesus himself accomplished his ministry in the power of the Spirit Thus the whole Trinity Father Son and Holy Spirit gives shape to truly authentic Christian ministry Though as Christians we all affirm the doctrine of the Trinity many of us might struggle to explain how understanding the Trinity could actually shape our ministry Stephen Seamands demonstrates how a fully orb'd theology of the Trinity transforms our perception and practice of vocational ministry Theological concepts like relationality and perichoresis have direct relevance to pastoral life and work especially in unfolding a trinitarian approach to relationships service and mission A thoroughly trinitarian outlook provides the fuel for our ministry of Jesus Christ to the Father through the Holy Spirit on behalf of the church and the world Essential reading for pastors parachurch workers counselors missionaries youth ministers and all who are called to any vocation of Christian ministry
