Light, 1925 Weaving the Divine Thread Brendan McGuire, 2019-12-09 In the busyness of our modern lifestyle it is difficult to see and experience God in our lives Unless we stop and listen it is hard to hear what God wishes to reveal to our hearts In publishing this book Fr Brendan offers us not only a challenge but an invitation An invitation to take a break to find some quiet time to be with the Lord It is there in the quiet of God's presence that we will find rest for our souls The book is comprised of a series of homilies Each one of the homilies was delivered in Fr Brendan's parish Each one emphasizes the presence of God in the daily events of our lives He challenges us to step back from the busyness of the modern world and all its distractions and focus on the Word of God Many of the homilies tell a story of a day to day life Fr Brendan then connects that story of ordinary life to the story of God acting in our own lives When we step back and reflect on the presence of God in our lives we see that God is not only present but that he has woven a fabric a fabric rich in grace telling the divine the story that is deep within each of us

Abingdon Theological Companion to the Lectionary Paul Scott Wilson, 2013-01-01 The Abingdon Theological Companion to the Lectionary begins with the conviction that Scripture speaks first and foremost to Christians now Its message engages Christian belief and action in the present day While informed by the best in current biblical studies its commentary on the Scripture passages of the Revised Common Lectionary focuses on the questions of Christian life in the world that church members bring to worship Each entry is co-written by a theologian and homiletician and seeks to answer the questions What does this passage say about the gospel and how does it speak to my encounter with God in Christ and my calling as a Christian in the world This volume showcases theological matters that arise from the biblical texts in the lectionary and from the church seasons and special days This important resource draws upon recent scholarship in various disciplines with a view to enriching the theological contribution of sermons in the years to come
