Depression and Dysphoria in the Fiction of David Foster Wallace Rob Mayo, 2021-01-03 Depression and Dysphoria in the Fiction of David Foster Wallace is the first full length study of this critically overlooked theme addressing a major gap in Wallace studies Wallace has long been recognised as a depression laureate inheriting a mantle previously held by Sylvia Plath due to the frequent and remarkable depictions of depressed characters in his fiction However this book resists taking Wallace's fiction at face value and instead

situates close reading of his complex fictions in theoretical dialogue both with philosophical and theoretical texts and with contemporary authors and influences This book explores Wallace's complex engagement with philosophical and medical ideas of emotional suffering and demonstrates how this evolves over his career The shifts in Wallace's thematic focus on various forms of dysphoria including heartache loneliness boredom and anxiety as well as depression correspond to an increasingly pessimistic philosophy underlying his fiction The Cambridge Companion to Postmodern American Fiction Paula Geyh, 2017-04-24 Few previous periods in the history of American literature could rival the richness of the postmodern era the diversity of its authors the complexity of its ideas and visions and the multiplicity of its subjects and forms This volume offers an authoritative comprehensive and accessible guide to the American fiction of this remarkable period It traces the development of postmodern American fiction over the past half century and explores its key aesthetic cultural and political contexts It examines its principal styles and genres from the early experiments with metafiction to the most recent developments such as the graphic novel and digital fiction and offers concise compelling readings of many of its major works An indispensable resource for students scholars and the general reader the Companion both highlights the extraordinary achievements of postmodern American fiction and provides illuminating critical frameworks for understanding it Classic Penguin: Cover to Cover Paul Buckley, 2016-08-02 From Drop Caps to Deluxes Penguin Creative Director Paul Buckley presents a visual overview of the innovative covers that have put Penguin Classics at the forefront of the book design world Winner of the 2016 AIGA Design Observer 50 Books 50 Covers competition Since the launch of Penguin Classics in 1946 innovative cover design has been one of its defining aspects Today Penguin Classics remains at the leading edge of the book design world In this curated tour featuring illuminating commentary by artists and writers including Malika Favre Mike Mignola James Franco Jessica Hische Jillian Tamaki and many more Penguin creative director Paul Buckley showcases more than a decade of stunning cover designs and the stories behind them For lovers of classic literature book design and all things Penguin Classic Penguin has you covered Paul Buckley is creative director for Penguin Classics and oversees a large staff of exceptionally talented designers and art directors working on the jackets and covers of sixteen imprints within the Penguin Random House publishing group Over the past two decades his iconic design and singular art direction have been showcased on thousands of covers and jackets winning him many awards and frequent invitations to speak in the United States and abroad In 2010 he edited and introduced Penguin 75 Matt Vee is a designer and illustrator who attended School of Visual Arts and Pratt Institute He has received two Gold Scholastic Art Awards and created logos for worldwide brands His work has appeared in The Washington Post The Huffington Post Slate Print magazine Paste magazine and UnderConsideration's Brand New Audrey Niffenegger is a visual artist and writer In addition to the bestselling novels The Time Traveler's Wife and Her Fearful Symmetry she is the author of three illustrated novels and the editor of Ghostly Elda Rotor is vice president and publisher for Penguin Classics She has created and edited several series including Penguin Civic
