1st Course In Linguistics:

A First Course in Linguistics J. M. Y. Simpson, 1981 Linguistic Turns, 1890-1950 Ken Hirschkop, 2019-04-04

Linguistic Turns rewrites the intellectual and cultural history of early twentieth century Europe In chapters that study the work of Saussure Russell Wittgenstein Bakhtin Benjamin Cassirer Shklovskii the Russian Futurists Ogden and Richards Sorel Gramsci and others it shows how European intellectuals came to invest language with extraordinary force at a time when the social and political order of the continent was itself in question By examining linguistic turns in concert rather than in isolation the volume changes the way we see them no longer simply as moves in individual disciplines but as elements of a larger constellation held together by common concerns and anxieties In a series of detailed readings the volume reveals how each linguistic turn invested language as such with powers that could redeem not just individual disciplines but Europe itself It shows how in the hands of different writers language becomes a model of social and political order a tool guaranteeing analytical precision a vehicle of dynamic change a storehouse of mythical collective energy a template for civil society and an image of justice itself By detailing the force linguistic turns attribute to language and the way in which they contrast language as such with actual language the volume dissects the investments made in words and sentences and the visions behind them The constellation of linguistic turns is explored as an intellectual event in its own right and as the pursuit of social theory by other means Advocacy for Social and Linguistic Justice in TESOL Christine E. Poteau, Carter A.

Winkle, 2021-12-28 Recognizing the need for increased social justice in the fields of TESOL and English language teaching ELT globally this volume presents a range of international case studies and empirical research to demonstrate how English language instruction can promote social and linguistic justice through advocacy oriented pedagogies and curricula Advocacy for Social and Linguistic Justice in TESOL adopts a critical and evidence based approach to identifying effective practice in ensuring inclusive and equitable learning and teaching Chapters address emergent issues including heritage language and L1 attrition teacher and learner identity and linguistic colonialism as well as wider issues such as global citizenship and human rights Focus is placed on empowering both educators and learners as advocates of social justice and consideration is also given to how social responsibility can be supported through enhanced teacher preparation and professional development Making a timely contribution at the intersection of advocacy social justice and English language teaching this book will be key reading for postgraduate researchers scholars and academics in the fields of TESOL and ELT as well as language education applied linguistics and the sociology of education more broadly English language teachers and practitioners will also find this volume of interest First International Conference on Armenian Linguistics John A. C. Greppin, 1980

First Person Singular III E.F.K. Koerner, 1998-12-15 This sequel to the First Person Singular volumes published in 1980 and 1991 respectively SiHoLS 21 and 61 presents autobiographical accounts by major North American linguists This material provides an important primary source for the history and development of the discipline during the 20th century The volume includes photographs of all contributors and is completed by a full index of biographical names and a detailed index of subjects and languages which turn it into a useful research tool

A Compendium of University Entrance Requirements for First Degree Courses in the United Kingdom Committee of Vice-Chancellors and Principals of the Universities of the United Kingdom,1984

Critical Discourse Analysis Norman Fairclough,2013-09-13 Bringing together papers written by Norman Fairclough over a 25 year period Critical Discourse Analysis represents a comprehensive and important contribution to the development of this popular field The book is divided into seven sections covering the following themes language in relation to ideology and power discourse in processes of social and cultural change dialectics of discourse dialectical relations between discourse and other moments of social life methodology of critical discourse analysis research analysis of political discourse discourse in globalisation and transition critical language awareness in education The new edition has been extensively revised and enlarged to include a total of twenty two papers It will be of value to researchers in the subject and should prove essential reading for advanced undergraduate and postgraduate students in Linguistics and other areas of social science
