The Kingmaker Avalyn Hunter, 2024-04-02 Toronto industrialist and Thoroughbred breeder E P Taylor wanted to prove to the world that his native Canada could produce racehorses as good as any and he backed up his belief by offering his own yearlings for sale So he couldn t have been happy when buyers in 1962 rejected a well bred but small bay colt from his Windfields Farm consignment But Taylor could hardly have envisioned the degree to which this seeming misfortune would boomerang in his favor Ultimately he would have the satisfaction of breeding then racing the horse that would transform the international bloodstock market Named Northern Dancer the sales reject proved his worth by winning the 1964 Kentucky Derby and Preakness Stakes for Taylor In doing so he became a Canadian hero And that was only the beginning As a stallion the diminutive Northern Dancer exerted a legendary influence on the breed at one time commanding a million dollar stud fee International competition for his offspring created world records in the auction ring Respected pedigree authority Avalyn Hunter tells the compelling story of the fiery colt who towered over his peers and the humans who played supporting roles legendary trainer Horatio Luro jockeys Ron Turcotte and Bill Hartack and Taylor himself Hunter also chronicles Northern Dancer s ascendancy as the world s most coveted stallion and the dynasty he established through his sons More than thirty years have passed since Northern Dancer s death and all of his sons are now gone as well even most of his grandsons have passed from the scene Yet the Northern Dancer sire line shows no signs of fading

The Archaeology of Tribal Societies William A. Parkinson,2002-03-01 Anthropological archaeologists have long attempted to develop models that will let them better understand the evolution of human social organization In our search to understand how chiefdoms and states evolve and how those societies differ from egalitarian bands we have neglected to develop models that will aid the understanding of the wide range of variability that exists between them This volume attempts to fill this gap by exploring social organization in tribal or autonomous village societies from several different ethnographic ethnohistoric and archaeological contexts from the Pre Pottery Neolithic Period in the Near East to the contemporary Jivaro of Amazonia
