

Carbone's COOKBOOK

JANE & MICHAEL STERN

Family-run for three generations, Carbone's has perfected an intimacy that assures newcomers as well as old friends that they will be well taken care of. . . . It is inspiring to look back and see how much the Carbone family restaurant and the gastronomic world around it have changed. . . . Today the meals it serves are both classic and cutting-edge, and its dining room remains one-of-a-kind.

— FROM THE INTRODUCTION

In the middle of the Great Depression of the 1930s, Charlie and Anthony Carbone, who ran an Atlantic Richfield gas station in Hartford, Connecticut, opened a restaurant in the city's South End, an area that teemed with newly-arrived Jews, Germans, Poles, and Italians. It was an era when few Americans who were not Italian appreciated Italian food. The Southern Plantation Restaurant (the original name) at first served mostly sandwiches, but gradually it added spaghetti with meatballs, calzones, veal, and soups.

Over the years, both the restaurant and Italian cooking have changed. The Southern Plantation has become Carbone's. Macaroni has become known as pasta. Fifty-cent beer has been replaced by a showcase wine list. Entertainment used to be Charlie Carbone's card tricks at the bar. Diners are now entertained by the preparation of spectacular flaming dishes at table side. And "Chicken in the Rough" has been replaced with Veal Saltimbocca, Linguine Carbonara, and Sicilian Orange Salad.
