Critical Discourse Analysis and Language Cognition Kieran O'Halloran, 2019-08-06 An interdisciplinary study of issues of language manipulation this book explores the interpretation stage of critical discourse analysis CDA for students in areas such as English language media studies and applied linguistics as well as practitioners in the field It also offers a new way forward for highlighting manipulative language accomplishing this through the innovation of a model of reading for gist The model is an original synthesis of elements from four contemporary cognitive frameworks connectionism cognitive linguistics psycholinguistic evidence on inference generation and relevance theory Significantly Kieran O'Halloran also shows how each of these frameworks challenges current notions of cognition in CDA and he carefully works through the implications of this for how CDA highlights manipulative language Features Shows clearly how more systematic and reliable prediction can be made as to whether a news text is likely to manipulate someone reading for gist Provides accessible outlines of connectionism cognitive linguistics psycholinguistic research on inference generation relevance theory which assume no previous knowledge Brings together contemporary linguistic and cognitive approaches which usually do not communicate Provides a useful overview of how language cognition is understood in CDA revealing tensions in this understanding In offering novel criticism of some key aspects of CDA and in suggesting ways in which critical analyses of news texts can be improved this book is likely to be both topical and controversial

Stunningly Dead. Comparative Analysis of the Central Female Heroines in David Lynch's "Twin Peaks" and "Twin Peaks: Fire Walk with Me" and Toni Morrison's "Jazz" Aleksandra Dediukina, 2024-09-09 Seminar paper from the year 2024 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 1.3 <http://www.uni-jena.de> English and American Studies course Interdisciplinary Perspectives Music in American Literature language English abstract This term paper compares two texts the television series Twin Peaks by Mark Frost and David Lynch released in 1990-1991 taken together as a whole with Lynch's following prequel Twin Peaks Fire Walk with Me 1992 and the novel Jazz 1992 by Toni Morrison through the prism of two theoretical findings of German cultural critic Elisabeth Bronfen First this is her concept of crossmappings formulated and applied as a method of analysis in the book Crossmapping Essays zur visuellen Kultur 2011 Second this is her theory regarding the depiction of a dead female body in arts that seemingly counter-intuitively is a highly widespread artistic image to which the perceiver responds rather with fascination than with terror This idea was represented and comprehensively described in the earlier book Over her Dead Body Bronfen 1992 whose central subject is the connection between death femininity and artistic collection offer a representative sample of the descriptive and systematic approach to the study of literary translation The book is a reflection of the theoretical thinking and practical research carried out by an international group of scholars who share a common standpoint They argue the need for a rigorous scientific approach the phenomena of translation one of the most significant branches of Comparative Literature and regard it as essential to link the study of particular translated texts

 This critical anthology explores the global literature of the African world as a unit whose chartable African heritage is coupled with the diversities and adaptations of post enslavement and post colonial experiences The text has a seminal introduction that defines comparative black literature by examining how mainstream studies have marginalized literatures of Africa and the diaspora by not grouping them as a unit that reflects the historical continuum of the global African literary endeavor The volume excerpts literature from vast representatives of the African world and introduces critical foundations that lead students to reflect on commonalities and divergences of global African literatures as well as the more practical exercises of writing and analysis Bibliotheca sacra ,1887 The Context of Constitution Dimitri Ginev,2006-07-20 This study brings together ideas developed over many years in various lectures in an endeavour to clarify the concept of hermeneutic fore structure of scientific research The starting point of my investigations was the outline of an interp tative approach to the constitution of science s cognitive content In the late 1970s I was preoccupied with a question that nowadays should be formulated as follows Is it possible to claim a validity of the hermeneutic view of the situatedness in a tradition also for the natural sciences I was convinced that the negative answer implies a self defeating position It states that in order to champion the cultural universality of hermeneutics one has to profess the non hermeneutic nature of the natural sciences

Paradoxically enough this a wer presupposes a sharp dividing line between dialogical experience and monological research in culture in order to stress the universality of hermeneutics Long before the period of perestroika in my corner I learned from Joseph Kockelmans Patrick Heelan and Theodore Kisiel how the universalization of hermeneutics can include the natural sciences without ignoring their cognitive specificity Somewhat later in the aftermath of the discussions over the finalization of science I began to confront the view that it would be a kind of trivializing the struggle for a philosophical hermeneutics if the theory observation nexus is treated as a specific hermeneutic circle No doubt the view is correct I was however dissatisfied with the way of arguing for it
