Competent Communication:

The Essentials of Competent Communication Jayi Thompson, 2016-08-15 This textbook briefly examines the major concepts of interpersonal communication. It is designed for its readers to inject these concepts into their daily lives, turning readers into participants. Ideally, the book should provide just enough detail of the theoretical intricacies of interpersonal communication combined with practical applications of these concepts. Its main objective is to increase the participant's communication competence through interactive learning. Human Communication: The Basic Course, Global Edition

Joseph DeVito, Joseph A. DeVito, 2024-06-04 Provides a thorough foundation in the theory, research, and skills of communication. Human Communication: The Basic Course provides an in-depth look at the concepts and principles of human communication, emphasizing public speaking, interpersonal communication, and small group communication. Designed to allow flexibility in teaching approaches, Human Communication: The Basic Course offers instructors a wide range of topics to discuss and apply to real-world experiences. MyCommunicationLab is an integral part of the DeVito program. MediaShare allows students to post speeches and share them with classmates and instructors. Interactive videos provide students with the opportunity to watch and evaluate sample speeches. Online self-assessments and pre and post tests help students assess their comfort level with public speaking and their knowledge of the material. Creating Competent Communication Donald D. Yoder, Lawrence W. Hugenberg, Samuel P. Wallace, 1996 Resources in Education, 1985 Advanced Consulting in Family Medicine Peter Worrall, Adrian French, Les Ashton, 2016-07-06 What distinguishes the consulting of experienced family doctors from their newly qualified colleagues? The question is often frustratingly hard to answer clearly or objectively. Unlike many professions, family doctors face a dearth of clear expectations of what constitutes advanced practice, a lack of defined standards against which to evaluate it, and an absence of expertise-related professional training in which to develop it post-certification. The model of consultation excellence outlined in this book illustrates in practical terms how advanced consulting can be nurtured. It avoids tantalising value judgements such as 'excellence'. Instead, it describes behaviours in terms that can be observed day to day, providing a detailed picture of what constitutes advanced consulting behaviour. How family doctors can be helped to acquire these higher levels of expertise and how changes in behaviour can be identified and evaluated. Advanced Consulting in Family Medicine is written in handbook form for easy access and use and provides a vital vision of higher-order family doctor consulting. Social Competence in Developmental Perspective Barry Schneider, Grazia Attili, Jacqueline Nadel, Roger Weissberg, 1989-08-31 What determines the focus of a researcher's interest: the sources of inspiration for a study or the variables scrutinized? If we were to examine the antecedents of these decisions, they would surely emerge as accidents of circumstance: the personal experiences of the researcher, the inspiration of early mentors, the influence of contemporary colleagues, all tempered by the intellectual currents that nurture the researcher's hypotheses. Among the accidents that mold the careers of researchers is geographic location. The culture in which a research program emerges helps determine both its very subject and its method The primary purpose of this book is to assist those interested in the scientific study of children s social competence in transcending the boundaries imposed both by geography and by selective exposure to the highly diverse schools of thought that have led to interest in this field Most of these ideas were presented and exchanged at an Advanced Study Institute entitled Social Competence in Developmental Perspective held in Savoie France in July 1988 This Institute was attended by scholars from France England Northern Ireland Germany Italy Norway Spain Portugal Netherlands Canada the United States and Brazil Those who participated will recognize that the metamorphosis from lecture to chapter has necessitated many changes In order to accommodate the reader who may be unfamiliar with the field more attention has been paid here to identifying the theoretical contexts of the research described
