The Birth of Modern Belief Ethan H. Shagan, 2021-05-04 An illuminating history of how religious belief lost its uncontested status in the West This landmark book traces the history of belief in the Christian West from the Middle Ages to the Enlightenment revealing for the first time how a distinctively modern category of belief came into being Ethan Shagan focuses not on what people believed which is the normal concern of Reformation history but on the more fundamental question of what people took belief to be Shagan shows how religious belief enjoyed a special prestige in medieval Europe one that set it apart from judgment opinion and the evidence of the senses But with the outbreak of the Protestant Reformation the question of just what kind of knowledge religious belief was and how it related to more mundane ways of knowing was forced into the open As the warring churches fought over the answer each claimed belief as their exclusive possession insisting that their rivals were unbelievers Shagan challenges the common notion that modern belief was a gift of the Reformation showing how it was as much a reaction against Luther and Calvin as it was against the Council of Trent He describes how dissidents on both sides came to regard religious belief as something that needed to be justified by individual judgment evidence and argument Brilliantly illuminating The Birth of Modern Belief demonstrates how belief came to occupy such an ambivalent place in the modern world becoming the essential category by which we express our judgments about science society and the sacred but at the expense of the unique status religion once enjoyed

The Collected Essays of Ralph Ellison Ralph Ellison, 2003-09-09 Compiled edited and newly revised by Ralph Ellison's literary executor John F Callahan this Modern Library Paperback Classic includes posthumously discovered reviews criticism and interviews as well as the essay collections Shadow and Act 1964 hailed by Robert Penn Warren as a body of cogent and subtle commentary on the questions that focus on race and Going to the Territory 1986 an exploration of literature and folklore jazz and culture and the nature and quality of lives that black Americans lead Ralph Ellison wrote Stanley Crouch reached across race religion class and sex to make us all Americans

Atlantic Republic Paul Giles, 2006-11-23 Atlantic Republic traces the legacy of the United States both as a place and as an idea in the work of English writers from 1776 to the present day Seeing the disputes of the Reformation as a precursor to this transatlantic divide it argues that America has operated since the Revolution as a focal point for various traditions of dissent within English culture By ranging over writers from Richard Price and Susanna Rowson in the 1790s to Angela Carter and Salman Rushdie at the turn of the twenty first century the book argues that America haunts the English literary tradition as a parallel space where ideology and aesthetics are configured differently Consequently it suggests many of the key episodes in British history parliamentary reform in the 1830s the imperial designs of the Victorian era the twentieth century conflict with fascism the advance of globalization since 1980 have been shaped by implicit dialogues with American cultural models Rather than simply reinforcing the benign myth of a special relationship Paul Giles considers how various English writers over the past 200 years have engaged with America for various complicated reasons its promise of political republicanism Byron Mary Shelley its emphasis on religious disestablishment Clough Gissing its prospect of pastoral regeneration Ruxton Lawrence its vision of scientific futurism Huxley Ballard The book also analyses the complex cultural relations between Britain and the United States around the time of the Second World War suggesting that writers such as Wodehouse Isherwood and Auden understood the United States and Germany to offer alternative versions of the kind of technological modernity that appeared equally hostile to traditional forms of English culture The book ends with a consideration of ways in which the canon of English literature might appear in a different light if seen from a transnational rather than a familiar national perspective

The Complete Essays of Michel de Montaigne Michel de Montaigne,1910 Tasting Paradise on Earth Jin Feng,2019-09-30 Preparing and consuming food is an integral part of identity formation which in contemporary China embodies tension between fast forward modernization and cultural nostalgia Jin Feng s wide ranging exploration of cities in the Lower Yangzi Delta or Jiangnan a region known for its paradisiacal beauty and abundant resources illustrates how people preserve culinary inheritance while also revamping it for the new millennium Throughout Chinese history food nostalgia has generated cultural currency for individuals Feng examines literary treatments of Jiangnan foodways from late imperial and twentieth century China highlighting the role played by gender and tracing the contemporary metamorphosis of this cultural landscape with its new platforms for food culture such as television and the internet As communities in Jiangnan refashion their regional heritage culinary arts shine as markers of ethnic and social distinction

Aldous Huxley and Alternative Spirituality Jake Poller,2019-08-12 Aldous Huxley and Alternative Spirituality offers an incisive analysis of the full range of Huxley s spiritual interests spanning both mysticism neo Vedanta Taoism Mahayana and Zen Buddhism and Western esotericism mesmerism spiritualism the paranormal Jake Poller examines how Huxley s shifting spiritual convictions influenced his fiction such as his depiction of the body and sex and reveals how Huxley s use of psychedelic substances affected his spiritual convictions resulting in a Tantric turn in his work Poller demonstrates how Huxley s vision of a new alternative spirituality in Island in which the Palanese select their beliefs from different religious traditions anticipates the New Age spiritual supermarket and traces the profound influence of Huxley s ideas on the spiritual seekers of the twentieth century and beyond

Religion and the Medieval and Early Modern Global Marketplace Scott Oldenburg,Kristin M. S. Bezio,2021-10-28 Religion and the Medieval and Early Modern Global Marketplace brings together scholars from a variety of disciplines to examine the intersection conflict and confluence of religion and the market before 1700 Each chapter analyzes the unique interplay of faith and economy in a different locale Syria Ethiopia France Iceland India Peru and beyond In ten case studies specialists of archaeology art history social and economic history religious studies and critical theory address issues of secularization tolerance colonialism and race with a fresh focus They chart the tensions between religious and economic thought in specific locales or texts the complex ways that religion and economy interacted with one another and the way in which matters of faith economy and race converge in religious images of the pre and early modern periods Considering the intersection of faith and economy the volume questions the legacy of early modern economic and spiritual exceptionalism and the ways in which prosperity still entangles itself with righteousness The interdisciplinary nature means that this volume is the perfect resource for advanced undergraduates postgraduates and scholars working across multiple areas including history literature politics art history global studies philosophy and gender studies in the medieval and early modern periods

The Complete Essays of Montaigne Michel de Montaigne, 2023-11-28 In The Complete Essays of Montaigne Michel de Montaigne presents a profound exploration of the human condition through a collection of reflective essays that blend personal anecdotes philosophical inquiry and rhetorical examination Written during the Renaissance a period marked by the revival of classical learning and the questioning of established norms Montaigne's essays challenge the reader to engage in self examination and dialogue about morality friendship education and the nature of knowledge His distinctive literary style characterized by an informal yet incisive approach invites introspection while advocating for a skeptical disposition towards dogma Montaigne 1533-1592 a French nobleman and statesman is often regarded as the father of the modern essay His own experiences coupled with his extensive reading of classical literature and encounters with diverse cultures inform his writing The personal nature of his essays reflects a deliberate shift from medieval scholasticism to an emphasis on individual thought shaped by events such as the Wars of Religion that deeply affected his worldview Such context enriches the essays situating them as a critical bridge between Renaissance thinking and contemporary philosophy This essential collection is highly recommended for readers interested in the evolution of prose and philosophy Montaigne's keen insights into human nature and his candid reflections offer timeless relevance resonating with any modern reader seeking to understand themselves and the complexity of human interactions This work will not only deepen your intellectual understanding but will also invite self reflection in a nuanced and engaging manner

The Complete Essays of Montaigne Michel de Montaigne, 1965 Presents the complete essays of the 16th century French aristocrat and Renaissance scholar the first and most influential example of deliberately personal observation covering a vast array of topics and merging intellectual speculation with casual anecdote and autobiography

Shipwreck With Spectator Hans Blumenberg, 1997 This elegant essay exemplifies Blumenberg's ideas about the ability of the historical study of metaphor to illuminate essential aspects of being human Originally published in the same year as his monumental Work on Myth Shipwreck with Spectator traces the evolution of the complex of metaphors related to the sea to shipwreck and to the role of the spectator in human culture from ancient Greece to modern times The sea is one of humanity's oldest metaphors for life and a sea journey Blumenberg observes has often stood for our journey through life We all know the role that shipwrecks can play in this journey and at some level we have all played witness to others wrecks standing in safety and knowing that there is nothing we can do to help yet fixed comfortably or uncomfortably in our ambiguous role as spectator Through Blumenberg's seemingly inexhaustible knowledge of letters from ancient texts through nineteenth century reminiscences and modern speeches we see layer upon layer revealed in the meanings humans have given to these metaphors and in this way we begin to understand what metaphors can do that more straightforward modes of expression cannot This edition of Shipwreck with Spectator also includes Prospect for a Theory of Nonconceptuality an essay that recounts the evolution of Blumenberg's ideas about metaphorology in the years following his early manifesto Paradigms for a Metaphorology
